

COAL MINERS' STRIKE IN YORKSHIRE IS TO BE FOUGHT TO FINISH

Coal Controller Says Strikes Would Break Out in Other Fields if Yorkshire Miners' Demands Were Conceded; London Bakers at Work

London, Aug. 11.—(Reuter's).—Apparently there is to be a fight to the finish in the strike of the 200,000 Yorkshire coal miners. The Coal Controller has told the men's leaders it is impossible to concede their demands, as to do so would mean a strike in every coal field in the country for similar concessions. No further conference with a view to arriving at a settlement has been arranged. It is believed the strikers' funds will last only another fortnight. Already £250,000 has been spent in strike pay. The bakers' strike, which was in progress for some time in London, has been ended. The men resumed work to-day on the understanding that the strikers would not be penalized for refusing to work and that the Government would introduce a bill at the earliest possible moment abolishing night baking.

AMERICANS ADVISED TO WORK AND SAVE

an Cut Down Cost of Living, Says Federal Reserve Board

Washington, Aug. 11.—"To work and to save" is the remedy for the raised cost of living pointed out today by the United States Federal Reserve Board. In reply to an inquiry from the Senate Banking Committee, asking if it was advisable to attempt contraction of currency in the hope of reducing prices, Governor Harding wrote that the volume of circulating notes is the effect and not the cause of rising wages and prices and that a war period of finance would not over until the Government obligation now carried by the banks is absorbed through the actual savings of the people.

Strong censure of strikes and extravagance was implied in Mr. Harding's letter, which did not, however, undertake to blame any one class of population but referred to the nation as a whole, especially the relation of economics practiced during the war and the purchase now of non-essential articles persons enjoying large incomes the first time.

LOWER RATE ON STEEL IS ASKED

American Pacific Coast Shipbuilders Want Railway Charges Reduced

San Francisco, Aug. 11.—Continuation of the present trans-continental light rates on steel would make operation of the Pacific coast shipyards of the United States impossible, and thus would cut down the volume of the trans-continental car, the Pacific Coast Shipbuilders' Traffic Association said in a petition to the United States Interstate Commerce Commission, made public to-day. The Association in a letter to Max Baughman, Director of Public Service, Edward Chambers, Director of the United States Railroad Administration, said shippers of the west had the advantage of a combined rail and ocean rate on steel at the Atlantic coast of $1.25 per cwt. and against $1.37 1/2 to $1.50 to Pacific coast plants. An export rate to this coast is only 10 cents, the letter said. The Interstate Commerce Commission would be asked to see that the coast yards are not driven out of business and higher rate on ship steel entirely eliminated. The revenue accruing to the cars for bringing steel to the coast one vessel of 8,500 tons alone is $100,000, based on $1.25 per hundredweight, the Association estimated. (Continued on page 14.)

ANDREW CARNEGIE DIES SUDDENLY

Succumbs at Lenox, Mass.; Ill Less Than Three Days

DAUGHTER UNABLE TO REACH BEDSIDE

Lenox, Mass., Aug. 11.—Andrew Carnegie, steel magnate and philanthropist, died at his Lenox summer home, "Shadow Brook," at 7.10 this morning, after an illness of less than three days with bronchial pneumonia. So sudden was his death that his daughter, Mrs. Roswell Miller, was unable to get to her father's bedside before he died. His wife and his private secretary were with him at the end. Mr. Carnegie had spent most of the summer at Lenox, coming late in May, and up to a few weeks ago enjoyed himself fishing on Lake Mahkeemac, which borders his big "Shadow Brook" estate, and in riding about his grounds. He was taken ill Friday and grew steadily worse. His advanced age and lessened powers of resistance hastened the end. Mr. Carnegie came to Lenox to make his home in May, 1917, and had spent the last three summers here. He intended to spend his declining years at his country home here. He came up from New York late in May this year. Mr. Carnegie leaves his widow, who was Mrs. Louise Whitney, of New York, and his daughter, Margaret, who last April was married to Ensign Roswell Miller, of New York. Gave Away $350,000,000. Washington, Aug. 11.—Andrew Carnegie had given away $350,000,000 in his lifetime. He was born in Scotland, and came to America in 1848. He was a successful businessman, and became one of the richest men in America. He was also a philanthropist, and gave away millions of dollars for the benefit of the poor. He died at his home in Lenox, Mass., at the age of 82.

Turks Attempted to Sink Goeben But British Interfered

Athens, Aug. 11.—Constantinople newspapers received here report that Turkish officers recently made an attempt to sink the former German battleship Goeben but were frustrated by British ships.

FOOD TO BRITAIN FROM DOMINION

Dr. James W. Robertson Back in Canada After European Mission

Ottawa, Aug. 11.—Dr. James W. Robertson has returned from Europe. At the request of the Minister of Agriculture, before the armistice was signed, he went overseas as representative of the Dominion Department for the purpose of investigating conditions in the United Kingdom and on the continent with a view to the disposal of Canadian agricultural products and making arrangements to that end. He visited Paris five times during the progress of the Peace Conference. Dr. Robertson's statement in regard to his activities abroad says, in part: "Most of my time overseas was given to the work of arranging for the disposal of the balances of the exportable surplus of our foodstuffs which were reduced in response to the campaign of increased production to keep the Allies safe during the war and to help to win the war. I am hopeful and confident that some time during the year action will be taken by the British Government in the direction which Canada desires and to an extent which will be satisfactory to our stock-raisers and the other interests concerned."

EDITORS VISITING AN OREGON LAKE

Medford, Ore., Aug. 11.—Two hundred and fifty editors of the National Editorial Association of the United States arrived here this morning at 6.30 a. m. en route to Crater Lake. In the party is Stephen Mather, Superintendent of National Parks. After breakfast at guests of the Medford Commercial Club, the editors left for Crater Lake in automobiles. A trout supper and campfire will be the features of the evening. The party will return here Tuesday afternoon.

INVESTIGATION OF RETAIL PRICES IN UNITED STATES

Washington, Aug. 11.—Attorney-General Palmer started out to-day to ascertain how much of the high cost of living in the United States is due to excessive profits taken by retailers. In a telegram to all the State Food Administrators who worked with Administrator Hoover during the war, the Attorney-General requested the appointment of a fair price committee in each county to investigate what is being charged for retail necessities, and if in excess of what the committee considers just, to publish a list of fair prices for the guidance of the public. Mr. Palmer frankly admitted that there was no means to prosecute directly a man guilty of extortion in prices. Retailers who are gouging the ultimate consumer will have to be disciplined by public sentiment, which officials have no doubt is sufficiently alert to the situation now to act vigorously in fair-cut cases. Hoarders, on the other hand, are being promptly.

CAPITALIST AND PHILANTHROPIST DEAD; LATE ANDREW CARNEGIE

SIR ARTHUR CURRIE IS AT SEA ON WAY TO DOMINION

London, Aug. 11.—Lieut.-Gen. Sir Arthur Currie is now at sea on his way back to Canada. He and Lady Currie left Liverpool on Saturday on board the liner Caronia, on which also are about 3,000 Canadians from both Dominion and Imperial army units. Sir Arthur told press representatives that he expected to proceed direct to Ottawa after landing on the other side of the Atlantic, and then fulfill his Toronto engagement on August 30. He hoped he would not be called upon to do much speech-making. The General left London without any formal farewells, although a month ago he and Lady Currie, who were in London, were entertained by the King and Queen at Buckingham Palace. Their last two days were spent among Lady Currie's relatives in Nottinghamshire. As they stepped aboard the Caronia at the Humbermouth dock at Liverpool, General Currie was recognized and heartily greeted by many soldiers. Local reporters subsequently interviewed the General, who made a pleasant reference to the British hospitality to the Canadian soldiers. He also expressed the opinion that the Canadian soldiers doubtless had returned with a better understanding of Britain and her people. General Currie, however, was not to be interviewed further. SEVERAL PERISHED IN MONTREAL FIRE

Nine Bodies Recovered After Blaze in Amusement Park

Montreal, Aug. 11.—Charred beyond the possibility of recognition, the bodies of three men, three women and a boy were recovered last night from the ruins of the Mystic Hill, a part of the scenic railway which was destroyed by fire at Dominion Park, an amusement resort near this city. It is thought several more bodies will be recovered when the wreck is thoroughly searched. The exact cause of the fire is unknown, but it is thought it may have been started by a cigarette or a match. The flames spread quickly and were fanned by a westerly wind which blew toward the river front, and it is to this that is due the salvation of the entire park. When the firemen arrived the Mystic Hill was enveloped in flames. They heard shouts for help and means of access, but it was impossible to get to the victims. They broke down the walls and in this way got a few persons out. When the scenic railway fell with a crash into a roaring furnace, it is said that there was a carload of persons on it at the time. The only way the firemen could tell the sex of one of the bodies they recovered was by a gold watch. Two other bodies were found closely huddled together and later the body of a person believed to have been a boy was found. One of the bodies had neither head, arms nor legs nor was there anything by which it could be identified. Many rumors spread through the city during the evening and immense crowds poured into the park. Thousands visited the scene of the holocaust. The presence of firemen and the liberal sprinkling of water throughout the entire resort did not prevent the people from mentering the various showboos. Two More Found. Montreal, Aug. 11.—Search to-day among ruins of the "Mystic Hill," destroyed by fire at Dominion Park yesterday, brought to light two more bodies, raising the total of dead to nine. None of those recovered have been identified. (Continued on page 4.)

WILL NEGOTIATE IF WORK RESUMED

Director of U. S. Railroads Waiting For Shipment to Return

Washington, Aug. 11.—Development over the week-end are expected to result in normal conditions almost at once in every railroad shop in the United States where men have been on strike. Director-General Hines is ready to undertake negotiation of wage demands, as directed by President Wilson, as soon as the men return to work. In view of President Wilson's specific instructions that the whole matter would later be "set at a standstill" so long as an illegal strike continued, the demand of men in some places for wage increases before going back to the job, it was learned, can not alter the situation. A Convention. Chicago, Aug. 11.—A call for a convention of representatives of the striking railway shopmen of the United States to be held here next Thursday to determine definitely what action shall be taken, has been issued by the Chicago District Council of the Federated Railway Shopmen, which called the strike August 1 in defiance of the international officers of the shop crafts union. This decision was reported as a result of conferences held by some of the international officers and representatives of the council and strikers at Cincinnati, Ohio, Aug. 11.—"It is radically Socialistic and ought to be fought," William H. Taft said of the convention. (Continued on page 4.)

Ex-Soldiers Want An Australian as Governor-General

Perth, Australia, Aug. 11.—The Returned Soldiers' Association here has passed a resolution declaring that the office of State Governor should be abolished. The resolution also states that the Governor-General should be an Australian.

JUDGE ROBSON AS HEAD OF BOARD

Also Reported O'Connor Will Be O'Board of Commerce Member

Winnipeg, Aug. 11.—"It is stated here," says a special dispatch to the Manitoba Free Press from its staff correspondent in Ottawa, "that Judge H. A. Robson, of Winnipeg, will be chairman of the Board of Commerce which was created by legislation last season following the report of the Mather Industrial Commission. W. F. O'Connor, K.C., who prepared the legislation, the correspondent adds, also will be a member of the Board, probably in the capacity of assistant chairman. The new Board is to be an investigatory body clothed with mandatory powers and will deal with combined forces which have for their purpose the undue enhancement of prices."

LANSING DEALS WITH THE TREATY

Appears Before U. S. Senate Committee and Tells of German Pact

Washington, Aug. 11.—Secretary Lansing presented several carefully prepared statements to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to-day on his second appearance before the committee to discuss the peace treaty and related subjects. They concerned chiefly the Government's negotiations with Japan during the war and the attitude of this Government toward China's entrance into the war. It was expected that during the day President Wilson would send to the committee information bearing on the Versailles negotiations. Shantung. Washington, Aug. 11.—President Wilson to-day refused to send the Senate a copy of the letter from General Bliss concerning the Shantung settlement on the ground that it contained confidential references to other Governments. Differences Noted. Washington, Aug. 11.—The original American draft of the League of Nations covenant sent to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to-day by President Wilson contains several provisions widely differing from the League covenant as adopted at Paris. NEWS WRITERS' UNION. Fresno, Cal., Aug. 11.—Fresno County newspapermen met yesterday in the Labor Temple and organized a news writers' union. They signed a petition for a charter in the International Typographical Union, elected officers and named delegates who were seated and recognized at a mass meeting of the Allied Printing Trades crafts. No demands were formulated.

AVIATOR HOY FLYING TO THE COAST FROM CALGARY

Calgary, Aug. 11.—Captain Hoy left Calgary at 9.50 a. m. to-day on his return from Vancouver. Hoy is taking the direct route via the Kicking Horse Pass. He expects to reach Vancouver between 9 and 10 o'clock to-night, coast time. He will stop at Golden and Vernon for gas and oil, and generally speaking will follow the C. P. R. main line. About 600 Miles. Capt. Hoy's trip was about 600 miles, and he was accompanied by a mail.

ROUMANIANS WILL BE ALLOWED TO STAY IN HUNGARIAN CAPITAL

Attitude of Peace Conference Is Reported Changed; Necessary for Occupying Troops to Remain to Steady the Situation

Paris, Aug. 11.—(Associated Press).—The Peace Conference, it became known to-day, is changing entirely its attitude toward the Roumanian army in Budapest. The Conference, it is learned, is not disposed to ask the Roumanians to leave the Hungarian capital immediately despite the fact that the supreme Inter-Allied Council asked the Roumanians not to enter Budapest. While the Supreme Council is indignant over Roumanian seizures of supplies in Hungary preparatory to shipping them to Roumania, many delegates to the Conference are of the opinion that it will be necessary for the Roumanian troops to remain in Budapest to steady the situation at least temporarily. The Council to-day was still without a direct reply from the Roumanian Government to the ultimatum which it sent Roumanis last week.

SMUTS REJECTED AUSTRIAN FEELER

Wedel, Former German Ambassador, Gives His Story of a Peace Attempt

Berlin, Aug. 10.—Via London, Aug. 11.—(Associated Press).—Ex-Count Wedel, former German Ambassador to Austria-Hungary, has made public another chapter of his attempt at peace-making while hostilities were in progress. This concerns an alleged conference between Count Mensdorff, former Austrian Ambassador to Great Britain, for Count Czernin, the Austro-Hungarian Foreign Minister, and Gen. Jan Christian Smuts, of the British Prime Minister. Czernin, says Wedel, had great confidence in Mensdorff, because Mensdorff was popular in London. Czernin regretted that Mensdorff had tried to prevent the war, but gave the former Ambassador explicit instructions "to ask immediately whether a general peace was possible, and whether peace for Germany was possible." In case the answer should be yes, Wedel quotes Czernin as saying, "suggest that German representatives be drawn into the conference. In case the answer should be no, further discussion would be useless."

TOLD TO STOP VOTE ON ONE BIG UNION

Washington Labor Federation Warned by American Federation of Labor

AERIAL FOREST FIRE PATROLS IN STATES

Washington, Aug. 11.—The recently established aerial forest fire patrol discovered thirty-five fires last week in California and Oregon and made seventy-nine flights of a total of 8,536 miles, the air service announces. The patrol service was extended last week to Oregon and twenty-eight of the fires discovered were in that state. Ninety-one fires have been discovered by the service since it was inaugurated seven weeks ago. The forestry service, the announcement says, was able to extinguish the greater number of these fires before they gained headway.

FORCED HALF DOZEN OUT OF DRUMHELLER

Ex-Soldier Miners Made One Big Union Leaders Leave Town

Calgary, Aug. 11.—A climax to the tense situation which has existed between the One Big Union element of the miners at Drumheller and the group of veterans employed at the Moodie Mines came Saturday evening when some of the veterans went quietly into Drumheller, seized five or six of the One Big Union leaders, took them out of town, and faced them outward on separate trails, and told them to keep going. They have not been heard of since, though it is reported that they will attempt to return to the town. A clash is expected if such an attempt should be made. The men run out included Secretary Sullivan, of the One Big Union local organization, and McDonald, Du Fels and Thompson, other prominent leaders in the movement. There was no violence connected with the incident, and it was carried (Continued on page 14.)

WASHINGTON LABOR FEDERATION WARNED BY AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR

Tacoma, Aug. 11.—The Washington State Federation of Labor will lose its charter in the American Federation of Labor if the unions in this State persist in voting on the proposition of merging the Washington State Federation of Labor with the American Federation of Labor, by Charles Perry Taylor, of Tacoma, former secretary of the State Federation. At the State Federation convention in Bellingham in June it was voted to refer to the local unions in this State the proposition of merging the crafts organization into One Big Union on the I. W. W. plan. Voting on the matter is now under way. The letter from Mr. Morrison has been turned over to President William Short, of the State Federation, and he will call a meeting of the executive committee with the request that the vote be called off so the charter may be retained, Mr. Taylor said. Pledge Ignored. The Morrison letter in part follows: "In ordering a vote upon the proposition to determine whether the local unions comprising the Washington State Federation of Labor shall adopt other organization policies, your organization has absolutely ignored its pledge to recognize and support the principles of autonomy of the national and the international unions. The illegal action of the State Federation of Labor has been brought to the attention of the Executive Council of the American Federation of Labor, and the Executive Council has instructed me to notify the officers of your organization that unless they immediately show this illegal action and cease parties, they will be expelled from the American Federation of Labor."

CALIFORNIANS SEE U. S. PACIFIC FLEET

Warships Visited by Many Los Angeles People; Speech By Daniels.

Los Angeles, Aug. 11.—Residents of Los Angeles and other nearby cities yesterday saw and trod the decks of an American dreadnought for the first time when they went aboard the vessels of Admiral Hugh Rodman's Pacific fleet.

Not as many visited the port as on Saturday, when the fleet arrived, but more boarded the ship. All day long and long into the night, the harbor and the waters offshore near the battleships were crowded with small craft bearing visitors to and about the ships.

Yesterday afternoon many thousands gathered in Exposition Park to hear an address by Secretary of the Navy Daniels, who spoke briefly on the "significance of the coming of the new Pacific fleet."

"To the West Coast," said Mr. Daniels, "the coming of the fleet is significant because it has come here not for a day, but forever. It will be a permanent defence against any possible aggression from any foreign foe."

Mr. Daniels spoke in a highly complimentary way of the officers and men of the fleet, their work in the war, their discipline and their conduct. Admiral Hugh Rodman and a number of officers of the fleet were present.

QUERY FOR CRIBBAGE PLAYERS

To the Editor.—No doubt from the many authorities on the game of cribbage who read your paper, a ruling can be obtained on the following, over which a dispute arose the other day:
It is A's crib. B leads a four. A plays a four and pegs two. B plays a four and pegs six. A plays a three and pegs two for fifteen.
Can B then play a five and peg three?

It must be remembered that the third four has been scored off by both players.

BRIG-GENERAL ODUM, C. B. ETC., ETC.

To the Editor.—Your reference to General Odum's remarks in your editorial is inclined to be rather misleading to the general public. I refer to (1) General Odum's remark about "asking nothing from the authorities at Ottawa and going to make his own way in civil life." I understand that many months ago General Odum secured the post of Collector of Customs for the Port of Vancouver. This being the case, what more should he want or ask of the authorities I fail to see as no doubt the handsome remuneration of the above post is sufficient for even a demobilized General. With such a splendid post awaiting him it should be comparatively easy for him "to make his own way in civil life." (2) As to your remarks re General Odum being the originator of "French raids," I think I am right in stating that the late Lieut. Owen, son of the Rev. Owen, of Vancouver, had a larger part in originating the idea than any one else. Unfortunately Lieut. Owen was killed on a patrol shortly after the first raid and was thus unable to see the excellent results obtained largely through his ingenuity. If I am at fault in any of the above statements and anyone can rectify my mistakes I shall be greatly indebted to him. I am, Sir, very truly, ONE OF THE 11th BATTALION.

NOTICE TO OLD SCOUTS

It is especially requested that all "Old Scouts" will send in their names and addresses to Boy Scout Association Headquarters, 220 Central Building. It is hoped in the near future to hold a rally or get-together of all old Scouts and officers, for the purpose of meeting one another and talking over together the old troop days, and the camps, etc., of that time. Suggestions as to the nature of the proposed gathering are invited.

The St. James Church troop will reconvene its regular weekly meetings on Monday, August 25, and will in addition organize a pack of wolf cubs, for boys of ten years of age. It is expected that the troop will soon be up to its full strength of three patrols. As soon as this occurs no more recruits will be taken on the strength until a vacancy happens. All recruits should join at the first meeting as a full programme of work and play has been mapped out and recruits joining after will lose part of the programme. All members of the troop must be present at this meeting. Any boys desiring to join the new Wolf Cub Pack should be at troop headquarters at 7 p.m. on Monday, August 25.

DO NOT PROFANE ST. HELENA.

(From the New York Evening Sun.) It is to be hoped that no misadventure on the part of the Allies and associated powers will lead them to select St. Helena as the Molokai of the Kaiser. We say this irrespective of the merits of his case as a whole, whether or not it is wise to try and condemn him at all. We are thinking of St. Helena and not of him. The island has almost a sacred place in tradition. It is the limbo of surpassing genius, the shrine of supreme misfortune. The mere name has a significance in the world mind like Marathon, Pharsalia, Canossa, Bunker Hill and Waterloo. The lonely rock has a significance to mankind, richer than the whole city of Berlin, with Essen and Emden thrown in. To send the Kaiser there as a prisoner would be almost as to turn the old North Church into a movie theatre or Independence Hall into a police barrack. There is room for only one ghost in St. Helena. Napoleon made modern Europe; Wilhelm II almost destroyed it. The greatness of the one shines more resplendent for the imposed equality of its surroundings. By far the best way to accentuate the littleness of the modern pinchbeck hero will be to trick out his end in the tawdry splendours of his Achilles. Make Corfu the antithesis of St. Helena in the coin current of world speech.

BACK TO THE EASIER JOB.

A professor of history met one of his class who had returned from fighting on the western front, and asked if he had learned any particular lesson from the war.
"Yes, I have, professor," replied the soldier. "I discovered that it is a great deal easier studying history than it is making it."

"No, no, old chap, but I was thinking that it was a case of reigning cats and dogs."

VICTORIA AND THE ISLAND.

The key to Victoria's industrial future lies in the natural wealth of Vancouver Island, and nowhere else. This city is now the largest and most populous community on the island. Whether it will continue to be so or not will depend upon the measure in which its business enterprise makes tributary to it the development which is bound to take place in the next few years.

Within the next decade there will be sufficient population on the Island to support a number of considerable cities, for it must be a full imagination indeed which cannot envisage the rapidity and extent to which the resourceful new regions of the world will be populated by people moving out of countries less happily favored, or the degree in which the world will endeavor to recoup its shattered fortunes by the utilization of resources hitherto unexploited.

The whip of necessity which forced the development of the great virgin natural wealth west of the Mississippi after the American Civil War will operate in the same way for the development of Western Canada as well as the undeveloped regions of other countries.

This is something Victoria should keep in mind. If we want to be more than a mere port of call for shipping we must have something for ships to come for. We must create a foreign trade with the development of our island resources as its foundation; shipping will not come in response to resolutions or the importunities of public bodies, or because their crews like our climate. Nor will transportation facilities on the island increase or improve beyond the actual business demand for extension or improvement. Looking at the commercial possibilities of the island as a day-to-day proposition and in the light of present profit is shortsighted policy.

Vancouver is not regarding it that way. It is energetically but patiently establishing its trade connections, creating a bond of personal intercourse and intimacy with the island communities—so many channels in which some day it expects the tide of trade and profit to flow to it. The modest little business tie of the present in all likelihood some day will become a great cable, the small trader on the West Coast eventually may become the master of a big emporium in a flourishing industrial centre.

No community ever became a big metropolis without casting its bread upon the waters when it was small, without making present sacrifices for future profit. Will Victoria become the Seattle or the Tacoma of Vancouver Island? It is for Victoria, and no other interest, to decide.

A HAPSBURG RESTORATION.

The entry of the Roumanian army into Budapest and the establishment of the ex-Archduke Joseph in power followed one another so closely that at this range the development looks suspiciously like one of cause and effect. Joseph announces that he is merely the provisional president of the Hungarian Republic pending the determination by the free and untrammelled people of the character of the Government they will have; but there are all the indications of a movement on foot to resurrect the Hapsburg monarchy on the ruins of Bela Kun's brief but lively adventure.

A Hapsburg in the role of president of a republic is certainly an anomaly. Prince Henry of Prussia might just as appropriately take the place of Ebert as President of the German Republic. Roumania explains the activities of her army in Budapest with the assertion that they were made necessary by the hostility of the Bolsheviks who, from Russia and Hungary, threatened her existence, but it should not necessarily follow that her successful operations against the menace should involve the establishment of the ex-Archduke Joseph in power at Budapest.

There should be sufficient material among the Hungarians for a Government without going to the Hapsburgs and risking the restoration of that thoroughly discredited dynasty. We suspect that dynastic reasons are playing no little part in Roumania's interference with the domestic affairs of Hungary, and with these the League of Nations can have no sympathy. This interference is not doing Roumania any good nor is it anything but a menace to the peace of Europe.

ANDREW CARNEGIE.

Although Andrew Carnegie, who died to-day, ceased long ago to participate actively in business affairs, his name continued to be one to conjure with in the world of finance and industry. Born in Dunfermline, Scotland, he started work at an early age as a bobbin-boy in a cotton-factory, subsequently becoming a telegraph clerk and operator. Afterwards he acted as secretary to the head of the Pennsylvania Railway and when his chief became Assistant Secretary for War during the conflict of 1861 he accompanied him to the front.

The first sources of Carnegie's wealth were his introduction of sleeping cars on railways and his investment in oil wells. He then turned his attention to the iron and steel industry, ultimately developing the enormous works which he disposed of to the United States Steel Corporation for some $300,000,000—just twice as much as he was prepared to sell them for a year or two earlier. He undoubtedly made the most of his opportunities, but he and his associates at times had to meet a great amount of criticism concerning the working conditions in their establishment. The Homestead strike and riots formed a page which even the great iron founder's large benefactions in subsequent years did not altogether erase.

Mr. Carnegie's other interests were numerous and varied. He devoted a large part of his annual income to the promotion and encouragement of public libraries and educational institutions, although there has been some controversy over the question of whether this was the most practical way in which he could help mankind. His contributions of millions for the erection of a Temple of Peace at The Hague and the construction of a Pan-American Palace in Washington as a home for an international bureau of American republics were more spectacular than practical. Nevertheless, he unquestionably accomplished a great amount of good and will pass into history as one of the most noteworthy figures in philanthropy. He also attained some prominence as an author, having written a number of works on travel, business, social and economic problems.

BOYS' NAVAL BRIGADE.

One of the most effective means of interesting the Dominion Government in the work of training the younger generation in the ways of the sea is to enroll a sufficient number in the ranks of the Boys' Naval Brigade to warrant the provision of a training ship. As a department of the activities of the Navy League of Canada the local Brigade has made good progress and has demonstrated that there are many youngsters in Victoria and neighborhood who are ready to emulate the example set by the men of the great silent navy through more than four years of war.

Lack of adequate facilities so far has not hindered the growth of the movement and practical nautical exercises have been taught. But as the numerical strength of the Brigade keeps pace with the enthusiasm of the youngsters official encouragement and recognition could be best demonstrated by the provision of a training ship. As a part of the nation's naval policy it could be counted as a good investment while the presence of the naval cadets at Esquimalt would appear to warrant a more practical programme to provide both future admirals and future A. B.'s.

LABOR DEPARTMENT'S RECORD.

As the pioneer province in the Dominion of Canada to establish a Department of Labor, British Columbia may take considerable pride in the fact that of all the Provinces for her population she stands first in the measure of service rendered to the unemployed since the national scheme went into effect in March last.

During the period from March 1 to July 12 British Columbia official employment offices found work for no less than 10,317 applicants out of a total for all Canada of 79,540. Ontario leads the way by reason of her more intensive settlement. Alberta comes second, but British Columbia easily leads Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Quebec numerically.

It must not be forgotten, however, that a great deal of work had been accomplished previously by the Provincial Department of Labor. Since the portfolio was created by the late Premier Brewster many of the industrial disputes which have occurred owe not a little of their invariably prompt settlement to the good offices of Mr. Farris, Minister of Labor, and Mr. McNeven his deputy.

LET ALL TAKE PART.

A member of the American relief commission in Armenia says that if the British troops are withdrawn from that part of Turkey the inhabitants will be entirely at the mercy of the Kurds and Turks who are planning fresh massacres. This would be a calamity, for the atrocities inflicted upon the people of Armenia by the ruffians of Talaat and Enver form one of the blackest chapters of the terrible story of the last five years. But the responsibility of protecting the Armenians should not be left wholly to Great Britain. This should be one of the paramount duties of the League of Nations, one of the underlying principles of which is supposed to ensure the safeguarding of small states. It is true that until the peace treaty has been generally ratified the League must remain in a state of suspended animation, but it ought to be possible for the nations composing it to underwrite some form of joint insurance for what is left of the Armenian race in Asia Minor.

A typographical error in these columns on Saturday made the article on Canada's debt state that the per capita debt of the Dominion was $20. The figure should have been $220—a very material difference as the taxpayer unhappily will realize.

some newspaper matter sent by The Herald to The Vancouver World. In crossing the Rockies last week Captain Hoy won the prize offered by The Calgary Herald, The Lethbridge Herald, The Vancouver World and The Victoria Daily Times.

Machine Tested.
The aviator's Curtiss machine was given a thorough overhauling here and nothing was found to indicate that the long trip last week had been the cause of any strain on the engine or the plane. Expert mechanics, arranged for by the Calgary Aero Club, were the job and tested everything out. Captain Hoy motored out from Calgary to the landing ground and tested things to his own satisfaction. He took the machine up for a few minutes on Saturday and, after putting it through some stunts, pronounced himself satisfied that everything was in good shape for the return trip.

Sighted. Captain Hoy's aeroplane, flying well, passed Banff at 11:30 a. m., Lake Louise at 11:50 a. m., Stephen at 11:57 a. m., and Field at 12:05 p. m.

Reception. Vancouver, Aug. 11.—An official reception will be tendered Aviator Hoy when he arrives back at Minoru Park from Calgary to-night. He will be met by civic officials, Aerial League members and representatives of public bodies. Immediately after his arrival he will be tendered a dinner by the Aerial League at the Minoru Country Club. On Tuesday the Rotary Club will tender a luncheon to Capt. Hoy in the Hotel Vancouver.

Plumb plan for the administration of the railroads of the United States in a statement he made to-day. "I very much disapprove of the plan. I am almost certain the Republicans will oppose the Plumb plan, and I hope the Democrats do, too. We should not let the soviet system gain even a toe hold in the United States," he said. "I do believe in close supervision of the railroads of the country, but such supervision we have had has been too severe. We should give the railroads a chance. Give them adequate revenues by proper rates so they can attract the necessary capital for necessary maintenance and improvements. We have not allowed the rates to go up as they should."

Referring to the strikes of railroad shopmen throughout the country and the demands of other railroad unions for increased wages, Mr. Taft said: "While I have not gone into the subject with the thoroughness to warrant a definite opinion, I think from what I do know, it seems to me that the men are requesting a greater increase than the percentage of increase in the cost of living warrants. Thus it appears they are asking more than they are entitled to receive."

Breach Widens.
Chicago, Aug. 11.—Striking federated railway shopmen returned to work at a number of points to-day, while at others they voted to remain out until the demands for an increase of wages is granted.

Plans for the holding of a national conference of strikers called for next Thursday were advanced to-day by the Chicago District Council.

A widening of the breach between local units and the international heads was made apparent with receipt of a telegram from B. M. Jewell, head of the railway division of the American Federation of Labor, declaring that striking locals would not be permitted to cast ballots in the vote being taken on the question of a strike August 24.

Reports were received at Council headquarters that strikers had burned some of the ballots sent out from international headquarters.

Called "Vicious."
Washington, Aug. 11.—The Plumb plan for tripartite control of the railroads of the United States is "vicious" and there is nothing akin to it outside of Bolshevism, Senator Pomeroy declared today. He said in a letter sent to officials of the railroad brotherhoods in Ohio and made public here to-day.

Declaring the plan was "worse than Socialism," Senator Pomeroy said the American people would never approve it "or anything akin to it," and added: "The public does not want to be skinned, but if it must be skinned it will make little difference whether it is by Wall Street or the methods provided for in the Plumb plan."

THE COAL COMMISSION.

Land and Liberty (London, July.)

The members of the Coal Industry Commission have issued four separate reports, the recommendations in which have been widely known through the press. All agree that the natural element, the coal, should become national property. The miners' representatives, Messrs. F. Hodges, H. Smith, and R. Smilie, are opposed to any payment for the acquisition of mining rights; other members demand "fair and just compensation." The commission is unanimous that the present economic position of the coal industry cannot continue, but their opinions differ as to how it should be regulated in the future. The chairman, the miners' representatives, and Sir Leo Money, Mr. R. H. Tawney, and Mr. S. Webb, call for full-blown nationalization of the mines, and control through a Ministry of Mines and local district Mining Councils. The colliery owners' representatives (Messrs. R. W. Cooper, E. Williams, and Sir W. Nimmo) and Messrs. A. Balfour and Sir A. Smith would have the mines run by private enterprise, the coal being leased from the state. Sir A. Balfour recommends the amalgamation of colliery owners, control under a Ministry of Mines, and certain restrictions upon profits.

POOR HORSES.

drawn into less general observations. Major Wills O'Connor, F. W. Miller and R. C. Bennett, of his staff, are with General Currie. Agreeable references to the departure of Sir Arthur appeared in several of Saturday night's papers here.

Lieut.-Col. Hart Coming.
London, Aug. 11.—There sailed from Liverpool on Saturday the steamship Araguaia for Portland, Maine, and the Megantic and the Corsican for Quebec. The first carries 65 officers, 23 nursing sisters, 21 mental cases from Warrington and 672 men from Kirkcaldy. Among the officers are Lieut.-Colonel Hart, Victoria, and Major V. L. Lamb, Alberta; D. F. Gray, Calgary, and J. H. Killam, Winnipeg.

The Megantic has on board 39 officers from London, 49 from Witley, 20 nursing sisters from Orpington and 351 men with dependents from Buxton. The officers include: Lieut.-Colonels A. D. Durkee, W. W. Evans, M. W. Ross, R. E. Woodhouse, H. R. Dabarry, H. F. Wille and F. A. Dabatt.

Also on the Megantic are Tosuka Matsukawa and Mr. Komura, Japanese delegates to the Peace Conference; Hon. A. L. Sifton, chief Canadian peace delegate; Sir Herbert and Lady Maxwell, Sir Charles Hobhouse, Sir Frank and Lady Bowden, Captain Hamilton Benn, M. P., and the Band of the Grenadier Guards. In command of Capt. Albert Williams, bound for the Toronto Exhibition and a tour of Eastern Canada and the United States.

The Corsican has 30 officers, four nursing sisters from London and 314 men from Buxton with dependents.

IN WHICH WE CONSIDER STRIKES.

It was a pleasant evening. Old Kaspar's work was done; He was a walking delegate, Likewise a son-of-a-gun.

"I guess I'll call a strike," said he. "But strikes are awful things," said I. "They cause a lot of woe. When calling strikes no doubt that you have cause for doing so?"

To me he made this strange reply: "I do not need a reason why."

"When times are good I call a strike Because I think I should. When times are bad I call a strike Because they are not good."

"Why do you call one now?" I cried. "There ain't no reason," he replied.

So from their prosperous, pleasant jobs Old Kaspar called his men; And after they'd been out a while He sent them back again to the mines. And the strikers muse and say "Be gee!"

Why is it called a victory?"

A GOOD MATHEMATICIAN.

Newitt: "They say that the person with a strong imagination has absolutely no head for figures." Barret: "Don't you believe it. When my wife gets her imagination at work upon her age she can make arithmetic look silly!"

A SURE ELOPEMENT.

He: "Then it is settled that we are to elope at midnight?" She: "Yes." He: "And you are sure you can get your trunk packed in time?" She: "Oh, yes, papa and mamma have both promised to help me."

SMUTS REJECTED AUSTRALIAN FEELER

alarmed them. They intended to go to Italy to confer concerning the possibility of a rapprochement, but gave up the idea as a result of the news arriving from Austria. Weden says he did not know what terms Great Britain and France would have offered, but he questions whether it would have been the status quo.

Effect on Europe.
Wedel quotes a high British officer who was in Vienna last fall and who praised the German army. The officer is said to have declared that Mr. Lloyd George had reached the conviction that no peace understanding was possible because supremacy in Europe was at stake. Though Mr. Lloyd George originally was anxious for peace, according to the officer, it was not because he feared defeat but rather the effect on Europe and Britain of a long conflict.

Wedel says he believes that those who thought there was a possibility of a peace understanding during the last years of the war over-estimated the possibilities of the situation.

HAD BEEN TO UNCLE'S.

"Do you mean to say," said Griggs, "that you have never discovered a redeeming feature in a habitual criminal?"

"Yes, I did once," admitted Briggs, "Ah, I knew it!" cried Griggs triumphantly. "No one is all bad. What was it? Love of home? Kindness to animals? Love of children?"

No, came the uncompromising reply: "It was a pawn ticket."

MUTUAL.

"Oh, George," murmured the sweet thing, reproachfully, "what would papa say if he knew that you ever touched liquor?"

"He has discovered it already, dearest," admitted her fiancé sadly. "Mercy! What did he say?"

"He said, 'Well, George, I don't mind if I do!'"

NATIONAL PARKS TOUR PARTY HERE EN ROUTE HOME

Brooklyn Eagle Organization
Made Brief Visit to Victoria
Yesterday

Some idea of the calibre and enterprise of the Brooklyn Eagle party which passed through Victoria yesterday, only spending a hour on the sightseeing cars, may be judged from the fact that when they were at Glacier National Park it was ascertained that money was required to finance a road connecting the American and Canadian park systems in the Rockies. Thereupon the members subscribed the necessary funds on the spot, and the work was put in hand before they left the district.

Known as the National Parks Tour of the Brooklyn Eagle, and 124 in number, it was organized for the purpose of making a general tour of the United States park system.

Special facilities were afforded the party by direction of the Minister of the Interior, and its personnel, in keeping with the traditions of the Eagle parties, was drawn from a different class than the average commercial tourist party. Facilities of an exceptional nature were placed by the authorities at the disposal of the group, which was managed by H. V. Kaltenborn, assistant managing editor of the Brooklyn Eagle.

Four years ago under the same auspices a party came to the coast on the occasion of the Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco, and so well did they appreciate it that in the present group now eastbound are several leading members of the 1915 aggregation.

"Everywhere we have been," said Mr. Kaltenborn to The Times, "the party has had every opportunity to observe all their is to see, our object being to ascertain the facilities for travel in the national parks. What I should like to see Canadians do is to use the same term in describing the park system in this Dominion as we do in describing the park reserves in the Rockies. At present tourists run away with the idea that the Canadian reserves are controlled by one railway company, so closely are the reserves associated with the names of Lake Louise and Banff. That should not be so, but the two groups should be linked up for the benefit of all classes of travellers."

Mr. Kaltenborn reported no untoward incidents in the tour. He mentioned among the party Judge McDermott, of Kings County, N. Y.; Dr. Minton, a leading physician, and member of the New York state board of examiners; W. V. Heister, Vice-President of The Brooklyn Daily Eagle; Edward M. Bassett, leading lawyer and ex-congressman from New York, who is still identified with a number of prominent boards in the city; Mrs. S. Clair McKelway, and Mrs. Walter Gibb.

By the time the party reaches New York again it will have travelled nearly 4,400 miles by rail, 1,600 by motor, and 700 by steamer. The party left New York on July 15 and will return by August 19. The route has extended through Chicago to Denver, thence through Wyoming to the Yellowstone National Park, and thence to the Glacier National Park. The trip to Victoria was made by way of Spokane, Portland, Tacoma and Seattle. From Tacoma the party visited the Rainier National Park.

ONE BIG UNION PLAN BUT PASSING PHASE IN HISTORY OF LABOR

That the One Big Union movement is but a passing phase in labor history is the opinion of Messrs. Benough and Bowser, organizers respectively for the International Association of Machinists and the International Brotherhood of Boilermakers, Iron Shipbuilders and Helpers of America, who have arrived in Victoria.

These men consider that the O. B. U. is similar to the movements which have been organized from time to time within the ranks of labor like the Knights of Labor and, later, the A. R. U.

"The O. B. U. does not now constitute twenty-five per cent. of organized labor in Canada and what may be termed the Irish are today not actually aggregate ten per cent.," declared Mr. Bowser. "They are just the I. W. O. over again. Their programme holds out nothing to labor; their leaders have no real standing."

"While the international organizations feel a change in labor conditions is due, yet they do not see how the accumulated wrongs of years are to be righted overnight. We believe that by concerted effort we can get together with the employers, and through co-operation achieve our ends. The O. B. U. supporters, on the other hand, with their principle of direct action want change irrespective of the needs of employers or employees. We have had our troubles within the ranks of international labor before this. Out of the A. R. U. organization of twenty-seven years ago came forth the four railway brotherhoods which are today the richest and strongest trade unions in America. But so far the main tactics of the O. B. U. supporters are vilifying the international heads. We don't treat the O. B. U. movement seriously, but we realize that the rank and file of labor may, to a considerable extent, be led to act against its real interests."

GLAUCO HE FOUND OUT.

A commercial traveler, on leaving a certain hotel, said to the proprietor: "Pardon me, but with what material do you stuff the beds in your establishment?" "Why," said the landlord proudly "with the best straw to be found in the whole country!" "That," returned the traveler, "is very interesting. Now know whence the straw came that broke the camel's back."

A BEDTIME STORY

UNCLE WIGGLY AND LULU'S CURLS

By Howard K. Gault

Once upon a time, as Uncle Wiggly Longears, the bunny gentleman, was hopping past the house where Susie Littlebail, the rabbit girl, lived he saw, out in front, Mrs. Littlebail, who was looking up and down the road.

"Good morning, Mrs. Littlebail," said Uncle Wiggly, politely taking off his tail, silk hat. "Have you lost anything that you are so often looking down the road?"

"Yes, I am looking for Susie," was the answer. "She went out to play about an hour ago, and she hasn't come back. It is time for her to practice her gnawing lesson, too."

"Dear me! That's too bad!" spoke Uncle Wiggly. "I'll go look for Susie," he went on. "If I find her I'll send her home to take her lesson."

"Thank you," said Mrs. Littlebail, as Uncle Wiggly hopped along, his pink nose twinkling like a star fish at the seashore on a dark night.

Over the hills, through the woods and across the fields hopped the rabbit gentleman, looking for Susie, and at last, as he came near a place in the woods where a sassafras tree grew next to a jolly bush, the rabbit gentleman heard some voices.

"Hail! Those are animal girls talking," said Uncle Wiggly to himself. "I hear Lulu Whiblewobble, the duck, and Jennie Chipmunk. Susie Littlebail must also be there, I think."

So he looked over the top of a huckleberry bush and there he saw Susie, with Lulu and Jennie. The animal girls were playing on a pile of sawdust made by Grandpa Whackum.

Grandpa Whackum was a beaver gentleman, you know, and he had very strong, sharp teeth for gnawing wood. He was the carpenter in the forest where the animal folk live, and built many houses for the rabbits, squirrels and ducks.

"Hello, Grandpa Whackum," called Lulu. "Are you looking for me?"

"No, I'm looking for Susie Littlebail," was the answer of the bunny gentleman. "Her mother wants her to come right home and practice her gnawing lesson."

For animals, you know, must have lessons the same as must boys and girls. Rabbits have gnawing lessons, frogs and grasshoppers have jump-

Captain the Rev. Dr. Campbell at his residence, "Breadalbane," officiated at a very pretty ceremony on Saturday evening, when Frederick William Wardman and Miss Hilda Everett were united in wedlock. The bride, who was a smart travelling suit of dark blue gabardine, was accompanied by her father and attended by her sister, Mrs. A. G. Tyler. The bridegroom was accompanied by his brother-in-law, J. B. Tyler. After a honeymoon trip to the Sound cities, Mr. and Mrs. Wardman will reside in Victoria, where they have a large circle of friends. Both are natives of England.

At "Breadalbane," 1185 Fort Street, on Thursday evening, the Rev. Captain Campbell celebrated the marriage of Joshua Marshall and Miss Ethel May Toivonen, both of Victoria. The bridegroom was supported by William John Dorey, and the bride was attended as bridesmaid by her sister, Miss Reta Toivonen. The bride, who looked charming, was attended by her traveling suit of dark blue serge. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall on their return will make their home in this city.

Uncle Wiggly and Lulu, Jennie and Susie got safely home.

"But what made your curls come loose that way?" asked Uncle Wiggly, looking over the tops of his glasses, surprised like.

"Oh, they weren't real curls," quacked Lulu. "They were just corn-porner's wooden shaving curls that Grandpa Whackum gave us. We stuck them on our heads, under our hats, to look like real curls."

"Well, they fooled," said the Pipsie-wh. "And if the jumping Jack doesn't fall out of bed when he tries to skip rope with the roller skates, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggly and the grasshopper."

CAPT. COWAN WEDS VANCOUVER GIRL

Vancouver, Aug. 11.—Keen interest was Saturday evening evinced in the marriage at St. John's Presbyterian Church of Miss Adelaide Ewen Alexander, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Alexander, of 1284 Nelson Street, with Capt. Charles Stephen Rupert Cowan, D.S.O., M.C., of Victoria, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Napier Cowan, for which there was a large concourse of spectators at the church. Capt. Charles Alexander, while during the signing of the register, Miss Daisy Geary sang "Love Transcending."

Brought into the church and given away by her father, the bride was radiant in an exquisite robe of white satin. It was fashioned with a Watteau train and a deep tunic of fine net, the vandyke points of which gleamed with diamonds and silver thread. She wore a long veil with a chaplet of orange blossom and carried a bouquet of white roses. Her ornaments included a diamond and platinum brooch, the gift of the groom, Miss Elin Alexander, sister of the bride, as bridesmaid. With a wide-brimmed hat of dove grey, she wore a nixon frock of the same color, bordered with motifs of metallic thread and patterned in plain and flowing draperies and the angel sleeves were weighed with tassels of the same. She held a sheaf of pink roses.

A reception followed at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Alexander, the latter receiving in a smart toilette of black charmeuse and Chantilly lace, with a plastron of gold brocade and a jetted hat with osprey mount. Marguerites decked the reception rooms. Capt. and Mrs. Cowan after a motor tour through Vancouver Island, visiting Cowichan and other points, will live in Victoria in a flat they have taken at the October Mansions.

What to Use and Avoid On Faces that Perspire

Skin, to be healthy, must breathe. It must perspire—must expel, through the pores, its share of the body's waste material. Certain creams and powders clog the pores, interfering both with elimination and breathing, especially during the heated period. If more women understood this, there would be fewer self-inflicted complexion troubles. If they would use ordinary mercerized wash instead of cosmetics, they would have healthy complexions. This remarkable substance actually absorbs a bad skin, also unclogging the pores. Result: It breathes and to show itself. The exquisite new complexion gradually peeps out, one free from any appearance of artificiality.

Obtain an ounce of mercerized wash from your druggist and try it. Apply nightly like cold cream for a week or two, washing it off mornings. There's nothing so good for an over-tanned or freckled face.

ENGLAND'S SCHOOL MEDICAL SERVICE

Far-Reaching System of Health Supervision to Be Adopted Shortly

As soon as normal conditions are again restored, England will have established the broadest and most far-reaching system of health supervision, one that will affect every member of the population. Beginning with the maternity centres and uniting agencies, both public and private, the promotion of health through good, adolescence, and beyond, will not only give every child the best chance of surviving, but will through improved measures promote the physical and thereby intellectual and spiritual well-being of the nation.

The next few years will not only see the extension of the programme in the schools, but the application of the lessons first to the industry. New light has been thrown on the relations between health and economic production that will prove as significant and far-reaching as the experience of the school medical service during the past ten years.

In this country, where only a beginning has been made with the medical inspection and treatment of school children, parents, teachers, medical profession, and organizations for social service can have no better lesson brought to their attention than England's example.

For those interested in establishing national standards of health there can be no more profitable subject for study than the irreducible minimum of a school medical service presented in the report here discussed:

1. That every child shall periodically come under direct medical and dental supervision, and if found defective shall be "followed up."
2. That every child shall be found malnourished shall, somehow or other be nourished and every child found verminous shall, somehow or other, be cleaned.
3. That for every sick, diseased, or defective child, skilled medical treatment shall be made available, either by the local education authority or otherwise.
4. That every child shall be educated in a well-ventilated school-room or class-room, or in some form of open-air school-room or class-room.
5. That every child shall have daily, organized physical exercise of appropriate character.
6. That no child of school age shall be employed for profit except under approved conditions.
7. That the school environment and the means of education shall be such as can in no case exert unfavorable or injurious influences upon the health, growth and development of the child.

HIGH COST OF LIVING EFFECT ON HEALTH

Survey by New York Public Nurses; Meatless and Milkless Households

New York, Aug. 11.—Results of a recent investigation by the New York City Health Department into some medical aspects of the high cost of living have just been made known. For the purpose of the investigation 2,084 families were considered, but were not specially selected. The investigation was conducted by the nurses of the bureau of Public Health, under the direction of Dr. Louis L. Harris, Director of the bureau.

Among the results noted are the influence of the high cost of living on the family diet, the effect on the children's dietary, the number of women forced into the industry in order to add to the family income, debts incurred to meet the high cost of living, the number of families dependent upon charity, the number of families which took in boarders to add to the family income and the effect of the high cost of living on amusements, clothing, and insurance maintained by the family.

Nearly sixty per cent of the families were visited for the primary purpose of supervising cases of tuberculosis; the remaining number were visited in the course of supervision of diphtheria and scarlet fever. The nurses were instructed to record only such facts as were pertinent in connection with the effects of the high cost of living.

A careful summary of the immediate influence of the increased cost of living on the normal dietary of the families which were the subject of this study was made. In 807 families out of a total of 2,084, or in a little over 39 per cent, meat was entirely eliminated from the dietary. In 388 families, about 19 per cent, the amount of meat purchased was appreciably reduced.

The same significance attaches to the elimination or reduction of butter and milk from the family dietary. It was found that in 615 families the use of butter was entirely eliminated, in 138 the quantity consumed was considerably reduced.

The use of sugar was abandoned in 143 families, owing to the diminished purchasing power of the dollar, and the amount of sugar was considerably decreased in 240 families.

Children Suffer.
 Special attention was given to the influence of the high cost of living on the dietary of the children. In 293 families the use of bottled milk was given up, all but eleven of these families substituting loose milk for bottled milk. In 294 families milk was entirely eliminated from the children's dietary, and in 71 the amount used for children was considerably reduced.

Housewives in Industry.
 How pressing the need for added income to meet the increased cost of living was may be further judged by the fact that in 9.8 per cent, of the homes reported in the study, the housewife had to enter industry to add to the family income. Many of these women undertook arduous work and it may be fairly conjectured that fatigue did not tend to enhance the quality of nursing or maternal care which developed upon them on returning from their work aside from the effects which such dual responsibilities may have had upon the health of the women themselves.

Value of Public Nurses.
 It must be apparent that surveys of this character made from time to time to note the reflection of changes in economic conditions must throw a flood of light upon the influences affecting the care of the sick, in so far as private practice, hospital care, and public health supervision are concerned. The wealth of details which were accumulated by these nurses in this pioneer public health study demonstrates the degree to which the latter can be adapted to highly important and new phases of activities.

It is hoped that the private physicians will discern in this study evidence of the help they may derive from the co-operation of humane, sympathetic, and intelligent nurses, and that they will welcome in increasing measure the assistance which these public health nurses are ready to give in various ways to patients among the poor and the so-called middle class.

Health Insurance.
 The report is a revelation of the need for health insurance because it shows how an illness may overthrow the economic balance which has been precariously maintained by a family, and conversely, it shows how illness may be produced or aggravated or recovery retarded by general economic changes.

In 287 cases out of a total of 2,183 cases of illness, or in a little over 13 per cent of the cases recorded in this census, recovery was very faintly retarded because of the increased cost of the essentials of life.

Corpl. W. N. Campbell, who recently returned to Victoria after being overseas since February, 1918, left yesterday for Prince George, where he will take up farming. Corpl. Campbell is the son of Capt. the Rev. Dr. Campbell, and before the war was for several years a student at the Agricultural College at Guelph, taking special courses in stock-raising and fruit farming.

MISS MONTIZAMBERT WEDDED SATURDAY

At St. Mary's Church, Oak Bay, on Saturday, a large congregation assembled at 2 o'clock to witness the marriage of Adelaide Bell, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Montizambert, 1715 Rockland Avenue, to Ernest Gerald Sanford, son of the late Armstrong Sanford and Mrs. Sanford, of Chelsea, England. Rev. G. H. Andrews, Rector of St. Mary's, officiated.

The church was effectively decorated with Shasta daisies and palms, forming a delightful setting for the ceremony. The service was fully choral, the surplices choir singing "O Perfect Love," while the bride party were in the vestry. The bride wore a lovely gown of white georgette with overdress panelled with white silk and with silver-fingered girdle. A becoming picture hat of white mohair and tulle trimmed with an orchid plume, and a shower bouquet of pink and white roses and mauve sweet peas completed her charming toilette.

Miss Lucy Little was bridesmaid wearing a pretty frock of gray georgette effectively relieved with touches of natter blue in the soft crushed girdle and trimmings. With this she wore a picture hat of black chiffon with blue ostrich tip and she carried an arm bouquet of pink and mauve sweet peas. Kenneth Raymur supported the groom.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, the out-of-town guests including Sir Frederick Williams-Taylor and Lady Taylor, of Montreal; their daughter, Mrs. Duff-Frazier, of New York; Col. and Mrs. Harold St. J. Montizambert, Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Henshaw, Mr. W. H. Hogg, Miss Barbara Hogg and Miss Kitty Armour, of Vancouver, and Mr. and Mrs. Dick and Miss Dick, of Spokane, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanford left on the 4.30 boat for Seattle, Portland and other cities on the Coast, and on their return will reside here for the present. Both bride and groom are popular members of the younger social set. The groom has for several years

Big Bill of Light-Hearted Numbers Presented This Week

Rarely does a Pantages programme of vaudeville offer a more pleasing headliner than "Her Left Shoulder" at the top of the programme commencing this afternoon. As the title would indicate, there is more of a plot to the offering which works out a well defined story. There are many scenes of elaborate conception and they are made active and colorful by a bevy of pretty little ladies wearing brilliant changes of costume. The act is heavily laden with the comedy of no less known a comedian than Charles Lammers. He is supported by Babette Winifred, a dainty prima donna who adds vivacity and genuine cleverness to the act.

The special added-attraction on the new bill is the appearance of the Ziegler Sisters for the first time west of Chicago. These two clever girls introduce one of the most brilliant offerings ever shown to Pantages audiences and the performance is of a character rarely seen outside the big New York productions. They are assisted in the act by three young men who are capable instrumentalists and are particularly strong on jazz-accompaniment. All together the act is very effective as a vaudeville attraction and comes over the circuit with the special blessing of Alexander Pantages himself.

Creamer, Barton and Sparling are three men who live up to their billing. "Lots of Pep." As singers this trio stands in a class by themselves and snappy comedy is introduced into the offering in such a way as to add to its appeal and at the same time accentuate rather than detract from the pleasing quality of the songs.

Rosa Valyda's song surprise is a double voice which is very effective in either register. She sings a repertoire of well chosen numbers and adds a yodel song which makes a hit with her audiences. She proves a popular entertainer.

Bill and Eva are trampoline experts who open the bill with a turn entitled "The Soda Fountain," because of the novel stage arrangement. Eva is the original "bouncing baby doll" and her performance is unusual and at times extremely daring. Joe Stewart and Olive are a capable pair who offer eccentric dances of the gentle sort and have a whirling finish which brings their curtain down with a crash of applause. The twelfth chapter of "The Man of Might" serial photoplay adds a screen feature to the bill which rounds it out nicely for an appealing line of entertainment.

BOYS' NAVAL BRIGADE

Aug. 9, 1919.

Victoria Division.

1. The brigade is formed for the training of boys in the pursuits of the sea.
2. The Victoria division now consists of two subdivisions, at present known as the James Bay subdivision and the Esquimalt subdivision.
3. The subdivision or ship's company will at present consist of: First Lieutenant, chief petty officer instructor, one boy chief petty officer, four boy petty officers in charge of tops, four boy leading seamen, one boy bugler. The remainder will be rated as "Boys A.B.'s." Each unit or ship's company will be arranged in four tops, namely: (1) Forecastle; (2) fore; (3) main; (4) quarterdeck.
4. Weekly orders, hereafter termed (W.O.'s) will be posted at each of the depots (Connaught Seamen's Institute, James Bay, and Royal Naval Institute, Sailors Club, Esquimalt), and in the daily papers at the beginning of each week. These are the orders of the commanding officer and must be treated as such.
5. The weekly orderly petty officer will be detailed and posted in orders. Any other petty officer who may be required. All boy petty officers and other boys should therefore study these orders as posted.
6. In the reorganizing of the Boys' Naval Brigade, hereafter termed (B.N.B.) petty officers and leading seamen will be selected from those boys showing the greatest amount of efficiency and carrying out weekly orders as posted.
7. Being parades to the Y. M. C. A. will be arranged for after September 1, 1919, but only those boys actually going into the tank are allowed to attend.
8. Boys requiring leave of absence must send in written application to the divisional office, 222 Pemberton Building, at least one day before that on which they wish to absent themselves. The names of boys absent without leave will be posted in weekly orders. Applications for leave must be initiated by parent or guardian.
9. When a boy is sick and therefore unable to attend parade, the orderly room should be notified by telephone before 5 p.m., the phone number being 5872.

Bad Breath IS CAUSED BY CATARRH

Canadians suffer more from Catarrh than from any other disease. On this account Catarrh is dangerous and should be checked at the outset.

It isn't necessary to take internal medicine to cure Catarrh. There is a far better method. Doctors now treat Catarrh by sending a purifying, healing vapor through the breathing organs. In this way the germs of Catarrh are destroyed.

The only successful vapor treatment is CATARRHOZONE, which the patient breathes through a special inhaler to the real seat of the trouble. The rich, piney essences of Catarrhozone heal and soothe all inflamed surfaces. They effectively treat the nose, throat and lungs with a powerful antiseptic that destroys irritation at once.

Catarrhozone brings into the system the balmy air of the pine forest. It cures completely colds, coughs, catarrh, weak throat and bronchitis. Once tried, Catarrhozone is always used. Nothing so pleasant, so simple, so quick to relieve, so absolutely sure to permanently cure. Accept no substitute. Large size lasts two months at cost $1.00; small size, 50c; sample trial size, 25c. At all dealers.

World's Lacrosse Trophy and Provincial Water Polo Title Won For Victoria Foundation Stickhandlers Win at Home---Local Swimmers Triumph on Mainland

Victoria Won Finest Lacrosse Game of Season From Royals

New Westminster Were Aggressors During Greater Part, but Foundations Had Ability to Score Whenever They Really Needed a Goal—Clean and Hard Battle

Victoria 9—New Westminster 7.

Although New Westminster tried hard and gamely at the Royal Athletic Park on Saturday afternoon to bust the long winning streak of the Victoria lacrosse team, and for awhile had the fans in a dubious mood for fear they would accomplish their purpose, in the end it was the old, old story. The white and green shirts won out after showing a number of surprising rushes into the Royals' goal, by a score of nine goals to seven. The Salmonbellies were the aggressors during the greater part of the game and looked extremely good. In the opening stages of the game they made the famous Foundation defence look like a sieve, and it was only by hard and heavy checking that the locals succeeded in stopping them. While Victoria did not press like the red-shirts it was quite apparent that whenever they wanted a goal they simply rushed through and notched one.

As a result of their win on Saturday the Victoria amateurs are practically assured of the Mann Cup, emblematic of the world's championship. They are the finest balanced team in the coast and old-timers claim that they are the fastest and best crowd of stick-handlers that they have ever seen. On Saturday they were forced harder than during any other game of the season and although they lagged behind a couple of goals at times, when they wanted to even things up the home just tore through Westminster's defence and bulged the net. The Victoria home is too fast for any little shot of Westminster or Vancouver can put up. Feedham, Mitchell, McInnes and Baker are beautiful stickhandlers and Allie McDougall is the best centre man ever seen on the coast.

Best Game of Year.
Saturday's game was the fastest, cleanest and best played so far this season. There were very few dull moments and the fact that the issue was always in doubt kept the fans interested in the game. The Royals poured forth a continual stream of advice to the players. Play was very clean and there was not a fight, despite the fact that the checking was hard around Victoria's goal whenever the red-shirts came down on their wild charges.

Jake Davis gave a wonderful display of goal-tending and his scoop-play and clearing was a little bit of a marvel. In the first quarter Jake was called upon to stop a number of hot shots from Storm, Follis and Pentland. The red-shirts beat the local defence and Davis was a man between them and the net. They put through a couple of shots but the Foundation's goal-tender blocked a bunch of their efforts.

Two Goals to Start.
Immediately after the face off the Royals showed a great turn of play and worried the Victoria defence. Within three minutes they had registered their first goal and before the quarter finished they had two more to their credit. The first goal was scored by Follis, who was able to score. Westminster had the better of the play and the local defence was very unsteady.

In the second quarter Foundations played hard and fast and there was plenty of scoring. Fritz Kroeger went the whole length of the field and scored unassisted with a bullet shot. Like a flash Storm beat Baker and the ball came out from the back off to Follis who passed to Storm. The goal was scored in twenty-five seconds a remarkably fast piece of work. Joe Painter went in hard from mid-field and scored. McDougall took the ball from centre and scored. The red-shirts were fighting every inch of the way and Follis got an easy goal. Every player on the field was trying to make a play. The last period the teams showed no signs of fatigue despite the hot pace. Baker scored for Victoria twenty-seven seconds after the face-off. The Royals started a hot bombardment of the local net and before they were finally driven back had beaten Davis twice and evened the score. But whenever the Foundations need a goal they have the ability to get it and two minutes after the red-shirts had fought to even terms Mitchell took a pass from Feedham and the game was won. Johnson was credited with a funny looking goal two minutes later, but as Westminster did not score again it did not mean anything in the winning of the game.

The scoring was as follows:
First Quarter.
1. New Westminster, Pentland, unassisted, 3 mins., 3 secs.
2. New Westminster, Gunn, unassisted, 11 mins., 25 secs.
3. Foundations, Baker, unassisted, 15 mins., 10 secs.

Second Quarter.
5. Foundations, Kroeger, unassisted, 2 mins., 23 secs.
6. New Westminster, Storm, from Follis, 28 secs.
7. Foundations, Painter, from McInnis, 3 mins., 29 secs.
8. New Westminster, Follis, from Taylor, 1 min., 10 secs.

Third Quarter.
9. Foundations, Feedham, from Baker, 7 mins., 36 secs.
10. Foundations, Feedham, from Baker, 4 mins., 17 secs.

Fourth Quarter.
11. Foundations, McDougall, from Feedham, 1 min., 10 secs.
12. Foundations, from Painter, 27 secs.
13. New Westminster, Chambers, from Pentland, 46 secs.

Penalties.
First Quarter—Coulson, New Westminster, 5 mins.
Second Quarter—Coulson, New Westminster, 5 mins.

Third Quarter—None.
Fourth Quarter—McDougall, Foundations, 5 mins. Pentland, New Westminster, 5 mins.

The teams were:
Victoria: Coulson, Foundations, Chambers, point, Davis, Sweeney, Brown, 1st def., Monroe, Stoddard, 2nd def., Kroeger, Rennie, 3rd def., J. Johnson, Storm, 3rd centre, McDougall, Oddy, 3rd home, Painter, Feeney, 2nd home, McInnis, Pentland, 1st home, Mitchell, Gunn, out, home, Feedham, Follis, inside home, Baker. Referee—Boss Johnson and Boots Dinmore.

Timekeepers—Lester Patrick and Cambridge. Penalty Timekeeper—Bob McInnis.

A Win For Shamrocks.
Montreal, Aug. 10.—Shamrocks won from Ottawa in Saturday's lacrosse game by a score of 12 to 1. A big crowd gathered and greeted these old time rivals.

SHAWNIGAN WINS IN RACE FOR THE WALBANK TROPHY

Regatta at Shawnigan Lake Attracts Crowd as in Pre-War Days

By about a third of a length the Shawnigan Lake four-oared crew beat the James Bay Athletic Association crew and carried off the Walbank Cup in the main event at Shawnigan Lake Saturday. The crews were as follows: Shawnigan Lake: Peterson, stroke; La Chapelle (3), Clark (2) Yates, bow. J. B. A. A.: Nagle, stroke; De Carteret (3), Ablett (2), Hunter, bow. The course was in perfect condition for the straight mile and the lake was perfectly smooth. A great race resulted after the Victoria men had got slightly the best of the start, and the result was in doubt right to the last second. Every ounce of energy was put in for the final spurt, and a little better steering helped the home team make sure of the cup. The Pedon Cup was won by Burdett who took the lead from the start and finished three lengths ahead of Wickson.

The Pedon Cup.
The J. B. A. A. Club fours between Johnson's and MacLachlan's crews was won handily by the former with the following crews:

Johnson, stroke, Fraser (3), Hartley (2), Watson, bow. MacLachlan's crew was as follows: MacLachlan, stroke, Meldrum (3), Wootton (2), Riddell, bow.

The mixed double canoe event was won by W. N. Kennedy and Mrs. Linn from J. A. Wickson and Miss McDonald, by two feet, after a hard struggle.

J. N. Kennedy and W. S. Day won from J. A. Wickson and R. Travis in the tandem canoe race. The work of putting the Willows track in shape has progressed remarkably well under the circumstances that it has been some four years since any work has been done to keep the track in condition. The Victoria and the surrounding district were among the spectators, and there were at least twenty-five autos loaded with visitors who made the trip from Victoria in time for the flannel dance in the evening.

The officials were: Judges, Col. Eardley Wilmet, S. J. Heald, G. Kingsley, F. T. Elford; starters, W. R. Elford, H. Kingsley, Dan O'Sullivan; general committee, G. W. Lonsdale, E. Clark, Phil Austin; master of ceremonies, Billie Kennedy; entry clerk, P. G. Twist.

1. Sailing Race—1, R. Mellin; 2, Musgrave.
2. Motorboat Race—1, Capt. Clarke's Lily; 2, Lonsdale; 3, Col. Prior.

3. Walbank Cup—J. B. A. A. vs. S. L. A. (Fours), won by Shawnigan Lake by one-third length.
4. J. B. A. A. Club Four—Johnson's crews vs. MacLachlan, won by Johnson handily.

5. Single Sculls, Pedon Cup—1, Peterson; 2, Margatich; 3, Wickson.
6. Double Sculls (boys under 15)—1, Burdett and Medland; 2, D. Elford and C. Phipps.

7. Double Sculls (boys under 15)—1, Neft and T. Elford; 2, Fletcher and McDonald.
8. Tandem Canoe—1, W. N. Kennedy and W. S. Day; 2, J. A. Wickson and R. Travis.

9. Returned Men's Single Sculls—1, Capt. Arthur Fletcher; 2, Margatich; 3, Johnson.
10. Double Canoe Race (mixed)—1, W. N. Kennedy and Mrs. Linn; 2, J. A. Wickson and Miss McDonald.

11. Outboard Motorboat Race—1, Mrs. Fletcher; 2, Mr. Ditchburn.
12. Mixed Double Sculls—1, Hepworth and Mrs. Clurg; 2, Margatich and Miss Hawking.

13. Upset Canoe Race—1, W. N. Kennedy; 2, Margatich.
14. Single-Paddle Canoe—1, W. N. Kennedy; 2, W. S. Day; 3, J. A. Wickson.

15. Swimming Race (boys over 15) and under 15)—1, Hartley; 2, McLean.
16. Open Swimming Race (men, 75 yards)—1, Johnson; 2, Dobson.
17. High Dive—1, A. McLean; 2, C. Phipps.

18. Springboard Dive—1, Mercer; 2, McLean; 3, Ditchburn.
19. Greasy Pole—1, Jack Yates.
20. Swimming Race (boys under 15)—1, Reilly; 2, McDonald.

Speed Demons Will Be Here Friday
Will Try Out Track, Previous to Saturday's Automobile Meet

"The demand for admission tickets to the auto races next Saturday has been so great that we expect a very large attendance," said C. H. Willis, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Automobile Dealers' Association of Victoria this morning. Thomas Plimley has the honor of selling the first box of six seats; Geo. Lillie and Walter Tevencomb have also reported a brisk demand for grandstand and box seats.

All Here by Friday.
Walter Blume with the big Stutz Special No. 4 will be the next to arrive on Wednesday and the speed demons, with their racing creations, will continue to come until next Friday, when the entire list of visiting drivers will be here to do a little preliminary tuning up at the Willows.

Great List of Spectators.
"It is the greatest list of racing cars and drivers that has ever entered for a race meet in the Pacific Northwest over an oval dirt track," is the expression of Thomas Plimley, general committee chairman. All of the automobile and accessory men are working hard and a crowd of 10,000 spectators is freely predicted.

Work on Track.
The work of putting the Willows track in shape has progressed remarkably well under the circumstances that it has been some four years since any work has been done to keep the track in condition. The Victoria and the surrounding district were among the spectators, and there were at least twenty-five autos loaded with visitors who made the trip from Victoria in time for the flannel dance in the evening.

Victoria Swimmers Take Honors In Saturday's Gala at English Bay

Lee Provincial Water Polo Trophy Goes to Victoria Amateur Swimming Club—Earl Squires Fifty Yards Junior Champion

The V.A.S.C. captured the majority of the honors at the Vancouver Amateur Swimming Club's gala held at English Bay on Saturday last. In the girls under fifteen years, Miss E. Curry (Foundation) and Miss K. Wellburn (V.A.S.C.) obtained first and second places respectively. The Victoria girls had the race all their own way, and an exciting battle took place for the first position, Miss K. Wellburn being beaten on a touch.

McNeill Second
In the senior 220 yards B.C. championship, V. Brydone-Jack, Vancouver, took first place; Jack McNeill, V.A.S.C., second; Elmer Ross, Vancouver, third; Angus McKinnon, Y.M.C.A., Victoria, fourth. This was a very close race. The Vancouver men led all the way; Jack McNeill tried to reduce the lead, but could not stand the fast pace set, so had to be content with second place. The other two finished close behind.

More for Victoria
The ladies' fifty yards (open) also came to Victoria, Miss Rosie Robertson and Miss Grace Wellburn, both Victoria A.S.C., got first and second places. Both these young girls swam well, Miss Robertson being an easy first.

Gets Provincial Title
The junior fifty yards championship of British Columbia was won by Earl T. Squires, Victoria A.S.C., Vancouver men getting second and third positions. He only came in third in his heat through being badly fouled. In the final he set the pace all the way and came in first, beating Brydone-Jack and Elmer Ross, of Vancouver.

B.C. Water Polo Title
Victoria A.S.C. won the provincial water polo championship, and in so doing is the first club to have its name inscribed on the Mrs. Lee trophy. The V.I.A.A. was drawn to play the Vancouver A.S.C. No. 1 team and lost out after playing three minutes over time, one goal to nothing.

Good Team Work
V.A.S.C. met No. 2 team in the second round and won five to one, chiefly through exceptional shooting ability and combination. Angus McKinnon and Jack McNeill being the goal scorers. Jack was off form and missed many opportunities, but nevertheless scored two and Angus McKinnon three. Angus played a sterling game, and the rest of the team were steady as rocks.

Vancouver Led
In the final game Vancouver was two goals up in the first minute or so, but rallying, the young V.A.S.C. team was soon on even terms and looked like easy winners, but Vancouver started rough work and paid notable attention to Jack McNeill. The latter had two of the Vancouver heavyweights on him and was so severely treated by them that they were ordered out of the water. After this the Victoria team scored, but with the ball lying in the net the referee gave no goal and with that time was up. The game accordingly went into three minutes overtime.

The Superior Team
All through the Victoria team was the superior aggregation and, considering the time available for practice, has shown great form both in combination and shooting. Jack McNeill deserves great credit for his coaching of the team which has brought the trophy to Victoria. Jack Weir played a very safe game in goal; at back Colin McFadyen was sterling, and Dave Belnavé steady as a rock. Bob Hiberson played a fine game at centre half and was always on the job.

Watching Victoria Cinch Water Polo Title
Angus McKinnon was the original busy bee on Saturday, and was there with the sting, notching three goals in the first round and one in the final of the B. C. polo championship win for the Victoria A. S. C. at English Bay.

Allister McKinnon was also on the job and secured a goal in the final game after fine team work by Bob Hiberson and Dave Belnavé. With bruises and scratches after the game, Vancouver's two policemen backs paid him overmuch attention, and paid the penalty by being ordered out of the water.

Colin McFadyen was in fine fettle, and showed great promise; his alert tactics were a treat.

The Mrs. Lee trophy is a fine piece of silverware, and is a representation of three polo players holding aloft a massive polo ball. Mrs. Lee, the donor, is an enthusiastic poloist and has given the Vancouver club every facility for helping the game.

Swimmers Meet This Evening
A meeting will be held to-night of delegates from all the local swimming clubs at the Y. M. C. A., commencing at 8 o'clock. The swimming clubs of the city are asked to have a representative at the meeting.

Victoria Swimmers Take Honors In Saturday's Gala at English Bay

Lee Provincial Water Polo Trophy Goes to Victoria Amateur Swimming Club—Earl Squires Fifty Yards Junior Champion

The V.A.S.C. captured the majority of the honors at the Vancouver Amateur Swimming Club's gala held at English Bay on Saturday last. In the girls under fifteen years, Miss E. Curry (Foundation) and Miss K. Wellburn (V.A.S.C.) obtained first and second places respectively. The Victoria girls had the race all their own way, and an exciting battle took place for the first position, Miss K. Wellburn being beaten on a touch.

McNeill Second
In the senior 220 yards B.C. championship, V. Brydone-Jack, Vancouver, took first place; Jack McNeill, V.A.S.C., second; Elmer Ross, Vancouver, third; Angus McKinnon, Y.M.C.A., Victoria, fourth. This was a very close race. The Vancouver men led all the way; Jack McNeill tried to reduce the lead, but could not stand the fast pace set, so had to be content with second place. The other two finished close behind.

More for Victoria
The ladies' fifty yards (open) also came to Victoria, Miss Rosie Robertson and Miss Grace Wellburn, both Victoria A.S.C., got first and second places. Both these young girls swam well, Miss Robertson being an easy first.

Gets Provincial Title
The junior fifty yards championship of British Columbia was won by Earl T. Squires, Victoria A.S.C., Vancouver men getting second and third positions. He only came in third in his heat through being badly fouled. In the final he set the pace all the way and came in first, beating Brydone-Jack and Elmer Ross, of Vancouver.

B.C. Water Polo Title
Victoria A.S.C. won the provincial water polo championship, and in so doing is the first club to have its name inscribed on the Mrs. Lee trophy. The V.I.A.A. was drawn to play the Vancouver A.S.C. No. 1 team and lost out after playing three minutes over time, one goal to nothing.

Good Team Work
V.A.S.C. met No. 2 team in the second round and won five to one, chiefly through exceptional shooting ability and combination. Angus McKinnon and Jack McNeill being the goal scorers. Jack was off form and missed many opportunities, but nevertheless scored two and Angus McKinnon three. Angus played a sterling game, and the rest of the team were steady as rocks.

Vancouver Led
In the final game Vancouver was two goals up in the first minute or so, but rallying, the young V.A.S.C. team was soon on even terms and looked like easy winners, but Vancouver started rough work and paid notable attention to Jack McNeill. The latter had two of the Vancouver heavyweights on him and was so severely treated by them that they were ordered out of the water. After this the Victoria team scored, but with the ball lying in the net the referee gave no goal and with that time was up. The game accordingly went into three minutes overtime.

The Superior Team
All through the Victoria team was the superior aggregation and, considering the time available for practice, has shown great form both in combination and shooting. Jack McNeill deserves great credit for his coaching of the team which has brought the trophy to Victoria. Jack Weir played a very safe game in goal; at back Colin McFadyen was sterling, and Dave Belnavé steady as a rock. Bob Hiberson played a fine game at centre half and was always on the job.

FIFTH REGIMENT SHOOT
At the Fifth Regiment, C.G.A., shoot held at Clover Point Saturday afternoon the weather was ideal and in consequence the scores were of a high order. No fewer than six possibilities were made at the 500 yards and there was one at the 600 yards. Sgt.-Major Watson, of the Garrison, was high man of the day, making a best possible 104 over the range. This is a record for Clover Point range and will be hard to beat, as it would require a perfect score at all ranges to better it. His sighter and first on score at 300 yards were inners, after which for twenty consecutive shots he never missed the bullseye.

Next Saturday the final stage of the James Thompson trophy will be fired at the 600 yards. The conditions are twenty rounds and one sighter. Shooting will commence at 8 o'clock.

Chicago, Aug. 9.—Mark P. Arie, of Thomasboro, Ill., trapezohooting champion of Illinois, and former amateur champion of the United States, to-day won the 100 yards, all-round amateur trapezohooting championship with a score of 195 out of a possible 200 targets. Frank M. Troch, Vancouver, Wash., amateur champion of that state and former national amateur champion, won the open all-round championship with a score of 190.

Troch had a chance to win both trophies, being the only shooter who qualified to contest in both events. Troch broke his first 110 targets and then missed two in succession.

VETERANS CONFER WITH COUNCIL ON HOUSING QUESTION

Prospects Now Appear
Brighter for Acceptance of City's Allocation

A two hours' session of the joint committee in connection with the Housing Scheme was held at the City Hall this morning. Aldermen Sangster, Patrick and Johns represented the city, and Majors Barty and Clark and Lieut. Norris and H. Hart looked after the interests of the returned men.

The agreement submitted by the Provincial Government to the City Council was dismembered and discussed piecemeal, also the report of the City Solicitor. Legal technicalities appear to be the only obstacles to a satisfactory settlement of the difficulty, and it was decided to instruct the City Solicitor to confer with the Provincial authorities with a view to the elucidation of vague and debatable points in the agreement.

Several matters were satisfactorily settled and the situation has assumed a decided hopeful aspect. As soon as the City Solicitor submits his report the committee will reconvene and go further into the subject.
The decision of the City Council to consider the Housing Scheme further has given a big impetus to applications for loans from returned soldiers.
So far Mayor Porter has received twenty-two applications for this kind.

HOUSE IN ESQUIMALT
IS GUTTED BY FLAMES

Thomas Watson's Premises
Are Burned From Spark
Outbreak Yesterday

Fire, starting in the roof probably from a spark, yesterday afternoon gutted Thomas Watson's large house at 621 Esquimalt Road, just outside the city limits. A rough estimate places the damage done at something in the neighborhood of $1,500.
The fire broke out on the roof at twenty minutes past two, and quickly spread all over the shingles.
A city alarm box was sounded and the City Fire Department responded to the call. When it was found that the house was outside the city limits, however, the engines returned to their halls, as Esquimalt has no arrangement with the city, such as exists with Oak Bay, whereby city halls afford the municipality fire protection. The engines from the Catherine Street Hall, however, were left to fight the blaze which, by this time, had assumed serious proportions.

Fortunately the residents of the house were able to remove most of the furniture, but the flames gutted the upper storey of the building and caused very serious damage to the lower floor. The firemen were on the scene for about an hour, and during some of the time the car service to Esquimalt was disrupted.

A SICKLY WIFE
NO FIT MATE
FOR ANY MAN

Never before was physical health and vigor so highly esteemed and so eagerly sought for as to-day.
No man finds happiness in a sickly wife, and the woman who wishes to enjoy the pleasures of life should spare no effort to maintain perfect health.

Is your daughter growing up strong and ruddy? Has she strength to drink in greedily all the pleasures that youth so zealously seeks—or is she compelled to use the street car instead of enjoying the delightful exercise of walking—does she after the ball arises refreshed and vigorous, or is she exhausted, indifferent, and perhaps irritable?

When strength and vigor can be so easily maintained by Ferrero's, when the glow of health is so quickly brought to the cheeks and elasticity to the step, it is plainly a mother's duty to see that Ferrero's is on hand to assist her daughter back to health.
Upon the wake of Ferrero's quickly follows a stream of rich, nourishing blood, which imparts that power and surplus energy so earnestly desired by those in ill-health.

Stop and think what this means for your daughter—certainly a great deal, and it can be accomplished by Ferrero's.

Every growing girl and young woman derives enormous benefit in many ways from this nutritive vitalinizing tonic.
It is especially suited for young women and is a guarantee of health and regularity as long as it is used.
Ferrero's is free from alcohol and perfectly safe to use. Prepared in the form of chocolate-coated tablet and sold in 50c. boxes or six for $2.50, at all dealers, or direct from the California Co., Kingston, Ont.

OSWALD'S FOLLIES PRESENTING POPULAR PROGRAMME THIS WEEK

Oswald's 1919 Follies have arranged a new programme for this week that should prove as popular as any that has yet been produced by this talented company. Two performances are given each day, one in the afternoon and one in the evening. The musical concerted numbers will include "Your Old Fashioned Rosette" and "I Want to Marry a Man I Do" from Florodora. Billy Oswald has a song that will be worth a visit without the rest of the programme entitled "Oh Her Face," the balance of the entertainment will include three new humorous interludes, and a sketch that has been made for laughing purposes only, entitled "The Secret."

VERY ENERGETIC.

The new recruits were drilling, and they were all very keen: one man especially—did everything with an energy which made the N. C. O. tired. The order was given to march, and the enthusiastic one who was in the front rank, set off with a will. He strode out, arms swinging, head erect, and eyes strictly "front," and never noticed that he had left his comrades several paces behind. The N.C.O. swallowed hard, and then called sweetly, "Say! You! When you get there, send us a picture postcard."

"Was due to his wretched memory. And not because he was tight—Ferdie Milton Royle's stage success of the same name. The story is whole-

CODE OF YUKON AT ROYAL FOUR DAYS

Vengeance of Higher Power
Intervenes in Dramatic Photoplay

Mitchell Lewis, Select's new star, will appear in his first picture, "Code of the Yukon," at the Royal Victoria for four days commencing today. "Code of the Yukon" is a story of Jean Dubois, a French Canadian prospector, who lives alone in the Northwoods. Here he has discovered gold and daily he stores away what he is able to wash, expecting some day to have enough to leave the Northwoods and start on a long journey. His one aim in life is to find the man who wronged his sister, when he left her in a convent after the death of their parents. One day Jean finds "Faro" Telford, a renegade gambler, in the woods, injured. He brings him to his hut where he does all man can do for him. "Faro" thanks Jean by telling some of his worthless friends about the mine that Jean has found. There is a gold rush and soon Jean is dragged into the life of the mining camp. He meets and marries the daughter of a poor prospector. She craves the better things of life and is not happy with Jean. Through her own weakness and the machinations of a gang of mining crooks who are trying to get Jean's mine, she runs away with one of the gang. With a sore but determined heart, Jean tries to forget about his wife and turns savagely to resume his quest for vengeance. The leading spirit of the gang is Cregan, a promoter of vice in all its forms, who runs the dance hall in the village. One of the unfortunate women in Cregan's employ has fallen in love with Jean, and just as Jean is about to leave the camp she discovers his mission in life. Jean learns that she is the only person that knows the story of his sister. She tells him that his sister was brought to shame by the same man who has ruined her life. The man is Cregan. Cregan and Jean finally face each other, as Jean has already wished that they would, in a room without weapons, other than those given them by nature. In the struggle that follows Jean is about to realize the fulfillment of his savage desire for vengeance when a Higher Power intervenes and Cregan is suddenly killed by lightning. Jean's wife returns and is able to prove her innocence of any real wrongdoing and Jean takes back to his heart the woman he has always loved.

some and big, and develops through stages of breathless suspense to one of the most thrilling climaxes ever attained in motion pictures.

The development of the plot in the screen version hangs on a thread of mystery and surprise that is spun out with clever producing touches to the very end of the story. Beatrix Michelena's impersonation of Kate Wilson in this picture is her greatest achievement since she forsook opera for the screen, every critic who has viewed the film having declared her work a marvel in both power and finish.

As has been true with all "California" features, "The Unwritten Law" attains a high moral level. There is nothing in the entire production that is suggestive or leans towards a cheap sensationalism. It contents itself with powerful human emotions. A mother's love and almost mad desire to protect her offspring makes the struggle worth the fighting. As with all great and convincing lessons, the one in "The Unwritten Law" is thrown in relief through the shadows of contrast, but at its end one is left to feel that right must always be finally triumphant.

The reception of "The Unwritten Law" by the press is well indicated by the following excerpt from the columns of the New York Evening Mail:

"To sum up this is a picture in which there are no flaws. It is wonderful. It goes into the exclusive class in which we have placed only two other features during the last six months."

"The Unwritten Law" is showing in Canada for the first time, and was just recently released from the "California" studio.

CHANCE TO LEARN.

"No, Bobby," said his mother, "one piece of pie is quite enough for you!" "It's funny," responded Bobby with an injured air, "you say you are anxious that I should learn to eat properly, and yet you won't give me a chance to practice."

"UNVEILING HAND" AT ROMANO THIS WEEK

Thrilling Story of Dramatic Situations in African Desert

Rather than control his love for liquor Philip Bellamy preferred to let his wife suffer and possibly die. He drank the brandy that was so sorely needed to keep up her strength, despite his knowledge that in doing so he was perhaps signing her death warrant.

This dramatic incident occurs in the heart of the African desert in the new World Picture, "The Unveiling Hand," starring Kitty Gordon, which will be shown at the Romano to-day Tuesday and Wednesday. It is but one of a number of intense, dramatic, gripping incidents which feature this enthralling photo drama. "The Unveiling Hand" is an engrossing story of the love of two men for a woman and of the manner in which the woman's husband disillusioned her, then becomes enshrined in her memory as a martyr to science, and finally after his return when he was thought dead, the manner in which his wife catalogues him in the proper manner.

Miss Gordon appears in "The Unveiling Hand" in the role of Margaret, the wife of Philip Bellamy. It is one of the strongest, most dramatic, most compelling roles she has ever played. Irving Cummings, who has made a big name and many friends for himself by his work in World Pictures, appears in this production in the role of Philip. George McQuarrie is seen in the role of Bob Harding, who is in love with Margaret, and Anthony Merlo, one of the popular young players of the screen, appears in the role of Hassan, an African guide.

On the same programme will be shown a two-part rollicking comedy, "Pullman Blunders."

"I always believe in saving something for a rainy day."
"How much have you saved?"
"Oh, I haven't saved anything, but I believe in it."

PRICES—Adults 10c and 15c, Children 5c.

REX BEACH'S NEWFILM AT DOMINIONThrills That Only Famous Author Can Create in "The Crimson Gardenia"

"The question of suspense is one of the greatest in picture production," said Rex Beach, the distinguished American author, whose success as a screen writer has been unprecedented. He was at the Goldwyn Studios supervising the picturization of his latest masterpiece, "The Crimson Gardenia," which is to be shown at the Dominion Theatre, commencing to-day.

It is perhaps the most necessary element of a good story, he added, "inasmuch as it is the one which plays upon an audience's emotions and heightens their interest in the unfolding of the plot. You can't hope for a good story unless you write around suspense."

Rex Beach is the man who introduced the "fight" into pictures—not merely wrote a story around a pugilistic encounter, but rather used a fight as the climax. First demonstrated in "The Spoilers," later in "The Beach" and last in his "The Crimson Gardenia." Mr. Beach has brought a potentiality to the screen almost entirely undeveloped by others.

In sustaining suspense in "The Crimson Gardenia" he has used particularly effective means. The scene is laid in the curio shop of Papa La Forge in the creole quarter of New Orleans. Emile Le Duc, a villainous Frenchman who is a fugitive from justice, goes to the shop to escape from the police. He and Papa La Forge are talking, Emile trying to explain that he is innocent of the crime of which he is accused. While they talk a flash is made of the office of the United States Marshall conferring with his deputies.

In the middle of this a dishevelled deputy rushes in, crying that Emile has escaped from him. The marshal declares that in a half hour a dragnet will overspread the city, and as he and his assistants telephone the scene is cut back to La Forge and Emile. As the latter is writing a letter a flash is made to the door of the shop, at which several policemen are knocking, their guns drawn.

A TRAGEDY.

Isabel was looking pensive, and Anabel wanted to know the reason thereof.

"No more shall I hear his footsteps on yonder walk just as the clock strikes eight," she breathed.

"Gracious, Isabel!"

"And the old sitting-room light will never burn low for him again."

"You don't mean it?"

"I do; and, furthermore, he will never sit on this sofa three nights a week and call me pet names, as he has been doing for two years."

"I am astonished!"

"And to-night I am going to burn all the old love letters in my chest of drawers."

"B-but, why? Are you going to discard him?"

"Discard him! Why, you goose, I am going to marry him!"

This Week

Los Angeles is said to contain more beautiful girls than any city in the world. And, by the same token it is the graveyard of more dead hopes than any city in the world.

The centre of the United States moving picture activities, Los Angeles is the mecca towards which aspirants for screen honors constantly head. Girls, whose foolish heads have been turned by local praise journey to the "City of the Angels"—only to find that thousands of other girls, all just as anxious to appear in motion pictures, and as pretty, or even prettier, have been compelled to take up less romantic pursuits because of the dearth of screen engagements.

One girl, however, who was more fortunate than the rest, is Mildred Harris, who will be seen this week at the Columbia, when "The Doctor and the Woman," the newest Jewel production, is presented. Fate smiled benignly when Miss Harris arrived at Los Angeles with the result that she obtained a few engagements in the more prominent studios as an "extra."

This Jewel is a screen adaptation of Mary Roberts Rinehart's popular novel, "K," and is said to be a companion picture to "The Price of a Good Time." True Boardman appears opposite Mildred Harris.

ORPHEUM CIRCUIT
TO BEGIN FRIDAYWill Be Here Two Days With Vaudeville Programme

The management of the Royal Victoria theatre make the announcement to the patrons of the theatre that commencing on Friday Orpheum vaudeville will include Victoria on its circuit. This no doubt will be welcome news to the citizens as this well-known circuit has a string of houses from New York to the coast and is known to provide a standard of vaudeville that is the very best possible to obtain. In this instance they will occupy the theatre every week giving three performances, Friday night, Saturday matinee and Saturday night. The artists travel here direct from Calgary, leaving here Sunday for Vancouver where they play a full week's engagement. If from no other standpoint, it is a good advertisement for Victoria as the name of the city is included on every programme in every theatre in which the Orpheum vaudeville plays.

At the head of affairs will be Miss Bessie Clayton, with a truly wonderful programme in the presentation of which she will be assisted by those incomparable Spanish dancers, Elisa and Eduardo Canino. In addition to these artists Miss Clayton will be assisted in her nineteen-nineteen dance creations by James Clemons, one of musical comedy's most successful eccentric dancers; by Arthur Gordon, Wilbert Dunn and a supporting company of clever artists. Never before have so many distinguished performers appeared in one act as Miss Clayton has gathered around her this season.

Another novelty on the programme will be a scientific enigma presented by Madame Burnell, called "The Current of Fun." This charming lady angel, of which there are few, and from every curve, of which there are many, the kind of fun which can be evolved from an electrical current and some clever assistants.

Blanche and Jimmie Creighton will offer "Mudtown in Vaudeville" Jimmie in the character of a down-east farmer and Blanche as a rosy-cheeked rustic maiden whose province is to ask foolish questions so that Jimmie can make nonsensical replies that everyone enjoys.

ANDREW CARNEGIE DIES SUDDENLY

two years of age. Her husband is now a member of the Carnegie family.

An invalid.

New York, Aug. 11.—Although Andrew Carnegie, who was in his eighty-fourth year, had been an invalid since 1917, when he suffered an attack of grippe, news of his death was a shock to his old friends here. Since his previous serious illness he had been under the care of two nurses.

Identified so long with the international peace movement, Mr. Carnegie was said to have been more severely affected by the world war than most men.

Owing to his ill-health, Mr. Carnegie for some time had been a recluse. After his retirement he was compelled to limit the number of daily visitors and until his last illness he met and spoke with only a few of his old and closest friends.

Mr. Carnegie's physicians declared he frequently overtaxed his strength by seeing all callers at his Fifth Avenue home.

At a "Shadow Brook," his new summer home at Lenox, which he purchased from the estate of Anson Phelps Stokes. Previously he had spent his vacations at Skibo Castle, in Scotland.

SKIDMOBILES' FATE HANGS IN BALANCE; EULOGISTIC LETTER

Described by Alderman Dinadale as a "joy-killer," denounced by Alderman Sangster as "perfect bunk," but upheld by Alderman Patrick as a life-saver, the skidmobile by-law, which has produced much harmless amusement in the City Council Chamber of late, will come up for final passage to-night. The fate of the new ordinance is still in the lap of the municipal gods, for, though it has weathered its two first readings,

Alderman Sarrent, the leader of the attack against it, has threatened that it will be "knocked on the head" when it is considered preparatory to final passage.
The by-law has been provocative of much discussion among parents and the public generally, and the aldermen who have sponsored it have received not a little criticism. It was with pleasant surprise that Mayor Porter this morning received from a resident of Shawnigan Lake a letter commending the civic authorities for framing such an admirable regulation.

REVIVE EFFORT TO SUPPLY WATER TO GORDON HEAD AREA

Petition, Now Circulating, Has Been Widely Signed By Property Owners

POINTS OF SCHEME, AND ITS ADVANTAGES

Less than two years ago the Saanich Council was asked by the city authorities to investigate the possibility of extending the city water service to Gordon Head. The purpose then sought was twofold, to increase the consumption of Sooke water and thus avoid the large amount of waste at the lake, and also to increase the food production in that portion of the peninsula.

Petition Circulated
The matter was very fully examined from the standpoint of the two districts, and failed from two causes. One was the difficulty of securing pipe with the shortage of tonnage on the trade routes during wartime, the other apathy by property owners, who were afraid of the increased cost of taxation.
Now the subject has come up in another form, and from the standpoint which is most probable to have weight with the municipal council. A petition is now in course of signature in the Gordon Head and Cadboro Bay districts to ask the Council to supply the district with water, presumably by extension of the main from Shelbourne Street.

The petition has been widely signed, in fact there have only been three refusals out of the large number of property owners in the district who have been invited to support the movement. The promoters are particularly gratified to find that of the influential city residents who own property in the Cadboro Bay district not a single refusal has been reported.

When the petition has been completed it will be presented to the Council through Councillor Watson, representative of the ward. Mr. Watson is known to be favorable to the scheme, as is also his predecessor in the representation of the ward, Mr. Somers. Both being fruitgrowers, they can appreciate the absolute necessity of some permanent supply for the district, which is one of the most fertile around Victoria.

Plan of Service.
With regard to the plan of service, until the Council receives the petition, no suggestion has been made as to a reservoir, or other means of conserving the supply. At the time when the subject was before the Council previously the idea of a reservoir on Mount Tolmie was suggested. Failing the immediate construction of a reservoir, it was then proposed that a water tower at Gordon Head might be constructed, with domestic storage tanks.
Considering the question of finance it was argued two years ago that the district must be served on a cheaper basis than the frontage rate, which in other parts of the municipality has been steadily falling since the installation of the waterworks. Most of the existing wells in the district are deep and expensive, and it is urged by those who support the scheme that the laying of a main service could be supplied at a cost which would counterbalance the frontage cost, as well as enhancing production immensely. Water being the chief need of the district from a production standpoint, it is considered that there would be a great improvement in settlement, leading to a number of the unused lands being taken up.

The present situation is that the waterworks system, contemplated on the basis of ultimate extension along Shelbourne Street when the Saanich waterworks was installed, now ends near Bay Road. An extension along Shelbourne Street to Pelham Road, and then pumping to the high level (Tyndall Avenue, at Gordon Head Hall is 226.5 feet above sea level), has been suggested as the best way of serving the district.
The petition will reach the Saanich Council at an early date.

ELKS PICNIC A HUGE SUCCESS

Children's Aid Society and Resthaven Soldier-Patients
Guests at Outing

Ideal weather and well-nigh perfect arrangements made of the picnic held at the Dominion Experimental Farm, Baaan Bay, yesterday, a "red-letter" event in the annals of the local Elks fraternity. Fully two hundred Elks were in attendance with their wives and lady friends, and in addition the little inmates of the Children's Aid Home, as well as a number of returned soldier patients from Resthaven were the guests of the local lodge.
A comprehensive programme of sports designed to include every age and both sexes was entered into with spirit and enthusiasm, each event being the signal for a veritable explosion of encouraging comment from determined "rooters."
Delicious refreshments were served in proper picnic fashion, the tang of the sea air imparting a zest to appetite and piles of delectable cakes, pies, sandwiches and all the other good things incidental to an Elks picnic disappeared like magic. Before the departure for town the Children's Aid Society gave three hearty cheers for their hosts and hostesses.

HOW MRS. BOYD AVOIDED AN OPERATION

female trouble which caused me much suffering, and two doctors decided that I would have to go through an operation before I could get well.

"My mother, who had been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, advised me to try it before submitting to an operation. It relieved me from my trouble, so I can do my housework without any difficulty. I advise any woman who is addicted to female troubles to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and it will do as much for them." — Mrs. Marie Boyd, 142 Fifth Street, N.E., Canton, Ohio.

Sometimes there are serious conditions where a hospital operation is the only alternative, but on the other hand so many women have been cured by this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, after doctors have said that an operation was necessary—every woman who wants to avoid an operation should give it a fair trial before submitting to such a trying ordeal.

If complications exist, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for advice. The result of many years' experience is at your service.

RESORTS VISITED BY HAPPY PICKNICKERS

Thousands Attend Shipyard
Employees' Outing; Beaches
Popular

Nearly three thousand people attended the shipyard employees' picnic at Goldstream on Saturday, where a most enjoyable day of sporting and other features of entertainment was participated in. It required three trains to carry the picnickers to the grounds over the Esquimalt & Nanaimo Railway.

There are some splendid singers among the shipyard men and they enlivened the proceedings considerably by the singing of popular choruses. The labor band, under the leadership of Thomas Beatty, discoursed sweet music for the crowds of dancers in the evening, when the dancing pavilion was the big centre of attraction.
The programme of sports was carried out very successfully under the direction of W. Goode and his sports committee. J. Creighton was chairman of the dancing committee and A. Watchman was chairman of the general committee. R. Bamford and D. McClellan were responsible for the transportation arrangements.

Centennial Picnic.
Centennial Methodist Church held its annual picnic at Baaan Bay on Saturday. There was a good attendance and a delightful time was spent in sports and other forms of entertainment.
More than one hundred members of Victoria Chapter No. 17, Order of Eastern Star, motored to Cordova Bay on Saturday afternoon and afternoon was given to sports of various kinds. The drive home by moonlight was thoroughly enjoyed.

AN AWFUL THREAT.
Mother: "Why did you not scream when Mr. Clive kissed you?"
Daughter: "He threatened me."
"How?"
"He said if I did he'd never kiss me again."

BE SUSPICIOUS OF TENDER GUMS

Be suspicious of any tenderness or bleeding of the gums. This is usually the first stage of Pyorrhea—an insidious disease of the gums that destroys the teeth and undermines bodily health.

Gradually the gums become spongy. They inflame, then shrink, thus exposing the unenameled tooth-base to the ravages of decay. Tiny openings in the gums form gateways for disease germs to enter the system. Medical science has traced many ills to these infecting germs in the gums weakened by Pyorrhea.

They are now known to be a frequent cause of indigestion, anaemia, rheumatism and other serious conditions.

So watch carefully for that first tenderness or bleeding of the gums. Try Forhan's immediately. It positively prevents Pyorrhea (Gingivitis). If used in time and used consistently.

And in preventing Pyorrhea—it guards against other ills.
Forhan's (For the Gums) cleans teeth scientifically as well. Brush your teeth with it. It keeps the teeth white and clean.

If gum-shrinkage has already set in start using Forhan's and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

CORDOVA BAY CAMPERS ORGANIZE REGATTA

Swimming, Diving, Canoeing,
Running and Evinrude
Races Wednesday

Cordova Bay campers have arranged for a big time Wednesday afternoon when they are hoping to receive a lot of their friends who enjoy a mid-week holiday. A programme of sports has been arranged, with P. Wollaston acting as president of the committee in charge, and George Russell, Jr., as secretary. Swimming races, running and canoe races are included on the programme. One novel event that is being looked forward to with interest is a ladies' log cutting contest. The programme will be as follows:

Running races—Boys and girls, 5 and under, 25 yds.; boys and girls, 8 and under, 50 yds.; boys and girls, 10 to 10, 50 yds.; boys, 10 to 13, 75 yds.; girls, 10 to 13, 75 yds.
Canoe races (open)—Men's race (200 yds. return), 400 yds.; mixed doubles (100 yds. return), 200 yds.; ladies' race (100 yds. return), 200 yds.
Dingy races—Single dingy, 200 yds. dash; men's double (with coxswain) 200 yds. return.
Canoe—Upset canoe race on pistol shot, 200 yds.; canoe tilting (mixed doubles).
Ladies' log cutting contest.
Diving—(All dives to be judged on merit)—Springboard, 2 dives each; high diving, 3 dives each.
Novelty race, tubs—Boys' double dingy race, 200 yds. return; girls' double dingy race, 200 yds. return.
Swimming—Closed 15 and under, 25 yds.; closed 14 and under, 50 yds.; closed 16 and under, 50 yds.; men's open, 50 yds.; ladies' open, 50 yds.; 100 yds. race for cup.
Handicap evinrude motor race.
Novelty diving for saucers.

Summer residents organized about five years ago with the intention of holding a regatta annually, but the plans fell through on account of the war. Saturday night a permanent association was formed, named the Cordova Bay Recreation Club, with the idea of holding an annual regatta and arranging events of a similar nature during the season, most of the events being confined to summer residents of the bay. P. Wollaston was elected president; Wm. Dee, vice-president; Mr. Dodds, treasurer; George Russell, Jr., secretary.

A Cup Offered
The club will be supported by subscriptions. Donations amounting to about $125 have been received for prizes for Wednesday's regatta, including a cup for the 100 yards swim. The cup has to be won two years in succession to become the property of the winner.

HOW TO DO IT.
Five-year-old Jimmie was telling about some medicine he had taken when recovering from the flu.
"Yes," he said, "I took some cod-liver oil, and—"
"You mean emulsion, don't you?" not compulsion," said the visitor.
"Well," rejoined Jimmie, "there was a good deal of compulsion about it."
